HIS PEACEFUL CONDUCT OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS IS GIVEN ENTHUSIASTIC APPROBATION

Democratic National Convention Rises to High Pitch of Enthusiasm as Former Governor Martin H. Glynn Delivers the Keynote Speech on Americanism, Peace, Preparedness and Prosperity —W. J. Bryan Weeps With Emotion.

"THE POLICY OF THE ADMINISTRATION HAS BEEN JUST AS AMERICAN AS THE AMERICAN FLAG ITSELF"

Temporary Chairman Cites Historical Parallels by Which Threatening Foreign Situations Had Been Adjusted—National Committeeman McLean's Design for Campaign Button Adopted—Tar Heels Prominent in the Convention.

St. Louis, June 14. — The Democratic National Convention at its first session today heard the keynote of Americanism and peace, preparedness and prosperity sounded by former Governor Glynn, of New York, as temporary chairman, and with a high pitch of enthusiasm emphatically registered by demonstration after demonstration its approval of President Wilson's peaceful conduct of foreign affairs.

The convention, which had gotten under way with such perfunctory demonstrations as mark every national gathering of the kind, soon stirred itself into roaring cheers as Chairman Glynn cited historic parallels to show that other presidents, including Republicans, had adjusted threatening foreign situations without resort to war.

"The policy of the administration," he declared, "has been just as American as the American flag itself."

As he went down the list of Presidents, recounting their action to avoid war, the delegates caught the spirit of his argument, and as he referred to each particular President, some delegate would call:

"What did he do?"

"He settled the trouble by negotiation," was the reply which Glynn invariably returned, and the convention would roar its approval.

Bryan Weeps With Emotion.

William Jennings Bryan, as a newspaper correspondent in the press stand wept with emotion as Glynn pictured the victories of peace, but he laughed with the crowd when a Texas delegate, interrupting Glynn, leaped to his chair and cried, "And don't forget that policy also is satisfactory to William Jennings Bryan."

Aside from a 16-minute demonstration which began when Chairman Glynn predicted President Wilson's re-election, Glynn's speech was sprinkled with demonstrations which he found it difficult to stem so he could go on. It was plain that the telling points on the delegates were the recital of President Wilson's efforts to keep the country at peace.

The Household Satisfied.

"This policy," he said, "may not satisfy the fire-eater and swash buckler, but it does satisfy mother of the land at whose hearth and fireside no jingoistic war has placed an empty chair. It does satisfy the daughters of this land from whom bluster and brag have sent no loving brother to the dissolution of the grave. It does satisfy the fathers of this land and the sons of this land who will fight for our flag and die for our flag when reason primes the rifle; when honor draws the sword and when justice breaths a blessing on the standard they uphold."

Cries of "Repeat It."

The last of the words were drowned out in a roar of applause that swept the Coliseum.

"Repeat it," cried the delegates, "repeat it."

"All right, be quiet and I'll repeat it," responded Glynn and he did, to applause and cheering.

No other President since the Civil War, Glynn told the convention, had faced such crucial problems, none had displayed a grasp of statesmanship more profound.

"Whether the course the country has pursued during this crucial period is to be continued and whether the principles that have been asserted as our national policy shall be endorsed or withdrawn," Glynn told the convention was the paramount question for the voters to decide.

"No lesser issue must cloud it," said he, "no unrelated problems must confuse it."

After hearing the keynote speech the convention adjourned until 11 o'clock.

Committees then went into session to prepare their work for the session.

Tar Heel on Resolutions Committee.

The committee on resolutions in charge of the work of drawing up the platform included Larry I. Moore, of North Carolina; E. D. Smith, of South Carolina; and Thomas S. Martin, of Virginia.

Today, the big Coliseum, holding about 12,000 people, practically was filled and despite a constantly rising temperature it was fairly comfortable. On their way to the convention hall the delegates passed between lines of suffragists spread along twelve blocks of Locust street, the most traveled route to the Coliseum. The suffragists, seated on chairs, ranged along the curbs, were arrayed in white and yellow and held yellow parasols. The waving lines of yellow gave the demonstration the popular name, "the Golden Lane."

The new Democratic National committee with the exception of members from Texas and the District of Columbia, where there are contests, follows:

Alabama, Edward D. Smith; Arizona, Fred T. Colter; Arkansas, Wallace Davis.

California, I. Dockweiler; Colorado, John T. Barnett; Connecticut, Homer S. Cummings.

Delaware, Willard Saulsbury.

Florida, J. T. G. Grawford.

Georgia, Clark Howell.

McLean's Design Adopted.

The National Committee has adopted a design for a campaign button suggested by National Committeeman McLean, of North Carolina. It bears a picture of President Wilson, with the motto "America First" in bold red letters. The North Carolina delegation are urging the appointment of Edward E. Britton, of that State, for permanent secretary of the convention. He held the place four years ago.

BRYAN EXPECTS TO GO BEFORE PEOPLE IN WILSON'S BEHALF

St. Louis, June 14. — While the resolutions committee was in session, Samuel A. King, of Utah, rose and made the statement:

"I called on William J. Bryan today, and asked if he would submit any planks. He replied:

"'I have no planks to offer but one, and that is the President's. Determine what he wants, and his plank will be mine. I expect to go before the people in his behalf on your report.'"

NO OTHER PRESIDENT IN 50 YEARS HAS HAD PROBLEMS SO CRUCIAL

No Other President Has Displayed a Grasp More Sure, a Statesmanship More Profound, Than Has Woodrow Wilson, Declares Martin H. Glynn, in Keynote Speech, Before Democratic National Convention.

St. Louis, June 14.—With the assertion that no president since the Civil War has had as crucial problems to solve; and no president has displayed a grasp more sure, a statesmanship more profound, than President Wilson, Hon. Martin H. Glynn ,former governor of New York, opened the Democratic national convention here today. Declaring that "Americanism and peace, preparedness and prosperity—are the issues upon which the Democratic party stands, and the haert of Democracy swells with pride that is more than a pride of party, as it hails the man who has asserted this Americanism, assured this peace, advocated this preparedness and produced this prosperity," he predicted the re-election of President Wilson.

Taking up our foreign relations that have been called into emphatic prominence by the world-wide war the speaker declared that "We have entered this hall as Democrats; we shall deliberate as Americans." * * * The policy of neutrality, he argued, is as truly American as the American flag For two hundred years neutrality was a theory; America made it a fact "It took Washington and his successors eighty years of endless negotiation to win recognition of American neutrality. And this eighty years of struggle wove the doctrine of neutrality so closely into the warp and woof of our national life that to tear it out now would unravel the very threads of our existence." By the records of history Mr. Glynn maintained that if Washington and Lincoln were right, President Wilson is right. The neutrality that President Wilson stands for today was advocated by Washington, by Hamilton, by Jefferson and by Lincoln.

By citing precedents Mr. Glynn justified and defended the course of the president in the Lusitania and similar incidents. "In the face of this record," he asked: "Do Republicans realize that when they arraign the policy of the President of the United States today they arraign the policy of Harrison, of Blaine, of Lincoln and of Grant? For the pleasure of criticising a Democratic President, are they willing to read out of the Republican party the greatest men the Republican party ever had? Are they willing to say that the Republican party of today condemns what Hamilton did in revolutionary days, what Lincoln did in Civil War days and what Grant and Blaine and Harrison did but yesterday?

"In his policy of peaceful negotiations today the President of the United States follows the example set him by the greatest presidents the Republican party ever gave this nation."

Mr. Glynn impressed on his hearers that it was the business of this convention "representing every section of the United States, speaking for every racial strain in America, to send forth a message to all the world that will leave no room for doubt.

"We must enable every real American to stand up and assert his Americanism. We must make the issue so clear that every ballot box in the land may become a monument to the loyalty of American manhood.

"The citizens of this country must stand behind their president because his policies are right. They will stand behind him because his policies are the policies which have brought the nation a century of prosperous and honored peace. They will stand behind him because they want these policies continued, that prosperity prolonged, that peace assured."

He pointed out that the promise made four years ago that a Democratic administration would liberate the nation from the chains of industrial tyranny has been carried out. He eulogized the Federal Reserve act and declared that the "Scholar-statesman whose rod has struck the golden rock of America's resources, to set free the wealth imprisoned for half a century, is a Moses who had led America's industries from the wilderness of doubt and despair to the Promised Land of Prosperity and Hope."

The laws restraining big business from stifling competition, the trades commission act, the movement to foster expansion of American trade, the close union of economic, commercial and financial interests between the United States and the nations of South America are shown to be legislation of the widest benefit. The Underwood tariff, Mr. Glynn characterized as the fairest and the best of all we have enacted. Under the present administration the United States has enjoyed a wonderful era of good business and good times.

The American's ideals and his aspirations served as the basis for the speaker's opening discussion.

"We who stand today on the fertile soil of America, who live under the smiling skies of a free and fruitful land must prove worthy of the trust that American sacrifice has imposed on every American.

"Disregarding the divisions that make one man a Tory and another a Whig, one man a Republican and another a Democrat, Americans will cast aside the tinsel of party labels and the mummery of party emblems.

"From the great pulsing heart of the nation will come a patriotic command to crush partisanship, and rebuke whatever is mean or blind.

"That command will be heard by the ploughman in his field, and by the laborer at his bench. It will reach the merchant in his office and the lawyer at his desk. We would be false to ourselves, and recreant to those who send us here if we permitted any thought of partisan profit, any consideration of political advantage to obscure our vision of the tremendous issues now before the people of the United States. We must cast aside all that is selfish, we must hold ourselves worthy of a nation's confidence by offering only the best of our intelligence, the flower of our patriotism toward the solution of what all men perceive to be a crisis in the nation's affairs."

In asking for an endorsement of the President's peace policy Mr. Glynn said:

"For two years the world has been afire; the civilization that we know has been torn by the mightiest struggle in its history. Sparks from

PLANK ON AMERICANISM IS SUBMITTED BY PRESIDENT

Practically Charges Some Foreign-Born Citizens With Conspiracy to Influence the Government—Condemns Any Organization Countenancing Such Movement—Other Proposed Planks.

St. Louis, June 14.—President Wilson's plank on Americanism, for the Democratic platform, practically charging a conspiracy by some foreign-born citizens to influence foreign and internal affairs for the benefit of other governments and condemning any organization countenancing such movements as well as any political party which, by failure to repudiate such a conspiracy, receives the benefit of it at the ballot box, was telegraphed here tonight from Washington and placed before the Democratic leaders.

As the resolutions committee, which will draft the platform and pass on the plank, was engaged at a late hour tonight in continuing public hearings of persons urging various declarations in the platform, the plank, which has the President's approval and which promises to be the sensation of the Democratic platform, was not formally considered and probably will not be until tomorrow when the sub-committee which makes the final draft of the platform has its meeting.

Very Guarded Talk.

There was very guarded talk about the President's plank tonight because all the leaders agreed that practically everything depended upon the phraseology in which it finally found its way into the platform and they did not propose to risk any leaks which might prove embarrassing later. The convention's boundless enthusiasm today whenever the issue of Americanism was touched upon gave evidence that the President's plank would go into the platform in some terms, but it is certain to be the subject of extended and careful deliberation.

It is understood tonight that from the following ten men will be chosen the sub-committee or eight which will put the platform in terms for submission nto the convention: Senator Stone, of Missouri; Senator Hollis, of New Hampshire; Representative Fitzgerald, former Representative A. Mitchell Palmer, of Pennsylvania; Senator Martin, of Virginia; Governor Stanley, of Kentucky; Senator Pomerene, Representative Rainey, of Illinois; Senator Walsh, of Montana, and Senator Pittman, of Nevada.

One tentative form for the wording of the plank which was being considered tonight but which was subject to change by the committee was as follows:

"Attention is called to certain organizations which have been attempting

RUSSIANS WITHIN TWENTY MILES OF BUKOWINA CAPITAL

In Advance Towards Czernowitz, They Have Occupied Sniatyn; Take Many Prisoners

VERDUN BATTLE DWINDLES

German Auxiliary Cruiser, One Destroyer and Twelve Merchantmen Sunk by Russians.

An advance of about 20 miles by the Russians, who have Czernowitz as their objective, is chronicled in the latest Russian official communication. Having previously crossed the Dneister river and taken Horodenka and Zale Szczyky, the Russians have now driven their men to the left bank of the river Pruth and captured the town of Sniatyn which lies only 20 miles northwest of the Bukowina capital.

Nowhere on the front, from the Pripet river in Russia and through Galicia to Bukowina has there been any cessation in the great Russian offensive. Along the entire line, according to the Russian war office, the Austro-Hungarians and Germans are being driven back, and the Russians are still taking thousands of prisoners and capturing guns, machine guns and war supplies. In the eleven days' drive 1,780 officers, 120,000 men, 130 guns and 260 machine guns have been captured.

Offensive Against Germans.

On the lower end of the German line, in Russia, to the north of Baranovichi, the Russians evidently have anticipated the proposed German offensive and taken the initiative into their own hands. Here, after violent artillery preparation, they seven times essayed to storm the German lines. Berlin says, however, that all their efforts failed, and that they were repulsed with heavy losses.

The fighting around Verdun has dwindled to intermittent bombardments, there have been no infantry attacks anywhere on this front since Tuesday, when the French positions west and south of Thiaumont farm were captured by the Germans, and 793 Frenchmen made prisoner. The Canadians around Zillebeke, in Belgium, are holding to the 1,500 yards of ground recaptured from the Germans Tuesday, although the Germans are heavily shelling them. No infantry attacks have been carried out by the Teutons.

The latest advices from the Austro-Italian war theatre credit the Italians with repulsing violent Austrian attacks on the Posina front, northwest of Schio. On the other sectors of this line the Austrians are bombarding the Italians' positions.

Russians Sink German Ships.

The German auxiliary cruiser Herzmann has been attacked and sunk in the Baltic, southeast of Stockholm, by four Russian torpedo boat destroyers, according ot Berlin. Reports from Sweden and Denmark concerning the fight say that it was between Russian torpedo craft and a German auxiliary cruiser, some torpedo boats and armed trawlers, which were convoying Ger-

EFFORT AT POLITICAL BLACKMAIL IS BEING MADE MR. WILSON SAYS

EMPLOYES REJECT RAILROADS' OFFER

Compromise Proposal, Eliminating Double Compensation Rule, Flatly Turned Down.

NEW PLAN IS DISCUSSED

Workmen Willing to Compromise Differences on the Eight Hour Day and Overtime—Conference Meets Again Today.

New York, June 14.—A continuance of the conference between representatives of 350,000 railroad workers and their employers, called to avert a possible general strike involving all the roads in the United States, hinged tonight upon the decision of the railroad managers as to whether they would offer a specific compromise to the demands of their employes. The men flatly rejected today the railroads tentative compromise proposal and adjournment was taken until tomorrow when the managers will report whether they are prepared to present a definite proposition.

The railroad managers, immediately following the adjournment, went into an executive session that continued until late tonight. Leaders of the men announced that no matter what the offer of the railroads, it will be rejected unless all existing double compensation rules are retained. They are willing to compromise on the other issues involved—the eight-hour day and time and a half for overtime.

In their tentative compromise offer the railroads have indicated their willingness to grant the demands of the men on condition that the double compensation rules be abolished. The men declare that such action would not only nullify twenty-five years of effort but also seriously impair their earning power.

Late tonight the railroad managers authorized the statement that it was highly probable no counter proposition would be made to the workers. The leaders of the railroad brotherhoods also announced that they expected the railroads would fail to meet their demands and are ready to leave for their homes and send out a call to vote on a general strike.

The break came near the close of today's session when the railroad managers finished answering most of the 105 questions propounded by the men regarding the operation of their tentative compromise offer.

A. B. Garretson, president of the Brotherhood of Railroad Conductors speaking for the brotherhoods, informed Elisha Lee, chairman of the railroad managers' committee and the conference, that the proposition was not acceptable to the men.

"Then," asked Chairman Lee, "I understand your position to be that even if we told you we would accept your

ASHEVILLE IS HOST TO MORE THAN 200 BANKERS

Annual Address of President Armfield Heard Last Night.

Feature of Opening Session, at Which Welcoming Address and Response Are Guard—More Arrivals Expected Today.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Asheville, N. C., June 14.—With over 200 delegates present, the annual convention of the North Carolina Bankers' Association was called to order tonight by President J. L. Armfield, of Greensboro, in the assembly room of Battery Park hotel, the headquarters of the convention. Most of the delegates to the convention are here, although a few more are expected in the morning. President Armfield, in calling the convention to order, expressed himself pleased with the large number present.

Dr. R. F. Campbell, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, pronounced the invocation and the delegates were welcomed to Asheville by Marcus Erwin, corporation counsel, who represented Mayor J. E. Rankin in welcoming the delegates for the city and for the bankers. Mr. Erwin indicated his pleasure at meeting with the Association once more, and told each and every member present to feel as if he owned the city, the keys of which he forthwith proceeded to turn over to the delegates.

A. L. Brooks, of Greensboro, responded to the address of welcome, declaring that it always gave the bankers pleasure to meet in Asheville and that its charm was so great as to make the delegates turn from a vision of Old Point Comfort and vote for Charges That Foreign-Born Citizens Are Trying to Undermine Government's Influence.

IT IS AN ACTIVE MINORITY

President's Assertion Sounded Key-Note of One of the Foremost Campaign Issues.

MAKES FLAG DAY ADDRESS

Carries American Flag at Head of Preparedness Parade.

Washington, June 14. — A charge that foreign-born citizens of the United States are trying to levy political blackmail and to undermine the influence of the national government, was made by President Wilson in a Flag Day speech here today. His assertion sounded the keynote of one of the foremost issues on which he will go before the country for re-election and touched upon a platform declaration which will be submitted by the administration to the St. Louis convention.

The President spoke before a crowd of thousands gathered at the foot of the Washington monument, after he had reviewed for five hours a great preparedness parade at the head of which he, himself, had marched down Pennsylvania avenue. He declared that not since the Civil War had it been tested as it now is being tested whether the Stars and Stripes stood for any one united purpose.

Active and Subtle Minority.

"There is disloyalty active in the United States and it must be absolutely crushed," declared the President, speaking emphatically. "It proceeds from a minority, a very small minority, but a very active and subtle minority.

"It works underground, but it also shows its ugly head where we can see it, and there are those at this moment who are trying to levy a species of political blackmail, saying 'do what we wish in the interest of foreign sentiment or we will wreak our vengeance at the polls.' That is the sort of thing against which the American nation will turn with a might and triumph of sentiment which will teach these gentlemen once for all that loyalty to this flag is the first of tolerance in the United States."

The President's words were taken as an open challenge to foreign-born Americans, who, he has learned from foreign language newspapers and other sources, are opposing him for re-election. Officials close to him said he was outlining his stand on what he had determined to make a predominant issue in his campaign.

Carried Flag in Parade.

While the Democratic convention was being opened at St. Louis, Mr. Wilson devoted the entire day to the flag day and preparedness demonstration. Carrying a large American flag he walked from the Capitol to the White House at the head of more than 50,000 marchers, including many high government officials, Civil War veterans, employes of all the government departments and of the local business houses, companies of cadets and National Guardsmen. Union and Confederate veterans and sons of veterans marched close together and were constantly cheered.

The Sons of Confederate Veterans, including commands from Virginia and Maryland, were grouped with the Southern Society of Washington as the "Sons of the South," and composed a division of more than a thousand. They included Senators and Representatives and other men of prominence. Ernest W. Baldwin, of Roanoke, Va., National commander-in-chief of the Sons of Confederate Veterans; W. W. Olds, of Norfolk, Va., and Clarence J. Owens, past commanders-in-chief, and Everett W. Buckmann, commander of the Washington camp, headed that organization.

President Then Reviews Parade.

The parade started from the Capitol grounds, and as its head passed the White House, the President dropped out and took his place in the reviewing stand. He was joined there by Secretaries McAdoo, Redfield, Lane and Wilson, Postmaster General Burleson and Attorney General Gregory, who had marched at the head of employes of the departments, and by Secretary Lansing.

As soon as the last marchers passed the stand five hours later, the President went to the Monument grounds, where his address formed the principal part of an hour's patriotic exercises.

The programme began with a National salute of 21 guns, and the marine band played the "Star Spangled Banner," while a huge flag was drawn slowly to the top of the white monument, 555 feet above the ground. Secretary Lansing presided and in introd-

APPROVES PLANK ON AMERICANISM

President Openly Challenges Alien Born Citizens Opposing His Foreign Policies.

SCORED FOR DISLOYALTY

Proposed Plank Criticises So-Called Hyphenates for Interfering in Relations Between U. S. and Other Nations.

Washington, June 14—President Wilson today approved a plank on Americanism for the Democratic National platform which arraigns individuals or alliances seeking to embarrass the government in negotiations with foreign nations, and condemns any political party which modifies its policy for fear of political consequences.

The President decided to challenge openly Americans of alien birth opposing his foreign policies. Learning from editorials in some foreign language newspapers that they were supporting the Republican nominee, Mr. Wilson sent word to his personal representatives in St. Louis to make the plank on Americanism direct and unequivocal.

Not Influenced by "Blackmail."

The plank on Americanism, drawn partially here and partially in St. Louis, had been completed tonight, and was ready for submission to the resolutions committee of the convention. It was taken for granted that it would be embodied in the platform practically as written.

The plank carries out some of the ideas expressed by the President in a Flag Day address here today, accusing a small group of Americans of foreign extraction of attempting "to levy political blackmail" to gain their ends. It further states that the Democratic party will not be influenced by such "blackmail" and in effect challenges the Republican nominee to take a similar stand.

Foreign-born Americans are severely criticised for interfering in behalf of foreign nations in the relations between the United States and other countries. The plank denounces men who seek to interfere with American institutions by political organizations under foreign influence.

Determination Strengthened.

Reports that efforts were made at St. Louis to put into the platform a declaration in favor of an embargo on arms, and other proposals which the President considers unneutral, strengthened Mr. Wilson in his determination to meet the so-called hyphenated issue as conclusively as possible.

The President kept in close touch with the situation at St. Louis today in spite of a series of activities which made his day unusually strenuous. Before marching in the preparedness parade here and while reviewing it he received reports from administration leaders at the convention. Mr. Wilson considers the campaign for the presidency on in earnest and his spokesmen here say he will keep constantly on the aggressive.

Glynn's Keynote Speech Praised.

Many telegrams warmly praising the keynote speech of former Governor Glynn, at St. Louis, came to the President tonight from delegates to the convention. Mr. Wilson seemed much pleased, particularly at the reception of the temporary chairman's tribute to the course of the administration in keeping the nation out of war. It has been understood that a declaration supporting that course would be made a prominent part of the platform.

Bernard Baruch, a New York financier, discussed the political situation with the President for an hour and a half late this afternoon.

Mr. Wilson let it be known that he opposes a declaration in the platform against the election of Federal judges to public office. Such a plank was suggested by some Democrats at St. Louis as a reflection upon Mr. Hughes, but the President sent word that he was anxious to keep personalities out of the campaign as far as possible.

McCormick Suggested for Chairman.

The President probably will indicate to the delegates at St. Louis tomorrow his choice for Chairman of the National Committee. Opposition has developed among committee members to Homer Cummings, of Connecticut. The name of Vance McCormick, former candidate for governor of Pennsylvania, has been suggested. Secretary McAdoo and Postmaster General Burleson conferred with the President on the question tonight.

REGISTRATION REPORT.

Shows Names of 146 Persons Who Voted Unlawfully.

The names of 146 persons who registered and voted unlawfully in the last primary will probably be stricken from the registration books by the City Election board. The board met at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The report of Messrs. W. G. Anderson and L. H. Partin, who were employed to check up the registration with the tax books to discover voters who had failto pay their poll tax, was submitted to the board.

The purging of the books makes it practically certain that the proposition to extend the city water mains and to purchase additional equipment for the fire department carried, while there is some likelihood that the factory site proposition was also carried. The board adjourned to meet tomorrow afternoon, when these matters will probably be definitely settled.

NEW BANK CHARTERED

New Corporatio nat Mount Olive Also is Granted a Charter.

Raleigh, N. C., June 14.—A charter was issued today for the Citizens' Bank of Zebulon, for the town of Zegulon, Wake county. The capital is $100,000 authorized and $10,000 subscribed by G. M. Bell, W. H. Strickland, J. T. Horton and others for a commercial and savings banking business.

Another charter is for the Cox-Rickley Co., of Mount Olive, capital $50,000 authorized and $2,500 subscribed for a general mercantile business.

J. N. Joyner, eldest son of Dr. J. Y. Joyner, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, has arrived to spend a while with his parents here after a stay of several years in China where he represents the British American Tabocco Company.

WOMEN CONFIDENT OF SUCCESS NOW

Conviction That Democratic Platform Will Favor Suffrage Cause Grows Hourly.

WILSON SUBMITS A PLANK

Members Think Wording Should be Stronger—Opposition to Length of Plank Approved by Daniels—Demonstration.

St. Louis, June 14.—The suffragists' fight for an equal rights plank in the Democratic platform closed today with the "Golden Lane" demonstration and tonight all camps began their final drive on members of the resolutions committee, and three cabinet members, Secretaries Baker, Daniels and Houston, who are here.

Hope for victory neve rwas brighter with the suffragists, for the conviction that the platform will favor their movement grows hourly. The big question now is what form the plank will take and whether it will be stronger than that contained in the Republican platform.

Objection to Proposed Planks.

President Wilson, among others, has submitted a plank to the committee, but tonight it was said that there was much doubt if it would be written into the platform. The opinion was expressed by several members that the President's plank was not specific enongh to be effective and one of stronger wording should be inserted.

A plank approved by Secretary Daniels also has found opposition in the National Woman Suffrage Association because it is considered too long. Its declaration in favor of immediate passage by Congress of a constitutional amendment, however, is favored by both the Nationals and the Womans' Party.

Representatives of both the Nationals and the Woman's Party today interviewed Secretary Baker, who bore the President's plank here, but he did not commit himself on the issue. Miss Hannah J. Patterson, of Pittsburg, represented the Nationals, and Miss Alice Paul, Sara Bard Field and Miss Ann Martin, the Woman's Party. Miss Patterson advised him that her organization asked nothing more than a declaration favorable to suffrage, while the Woman's Party presented the Daniels plank to him and said they would stand on it.

Win One Victory.

Suffragists won an early victory in the resolutions committee hearing tonight when Mrs. Arthur M. Dodge and other anti-suffrage advocates were compelled to present their opposition before the suffragists who heard.

The National Association, Woman's Party and Southern States Suffrage Conference delegations at the hearing were headed by Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, Miss Ann Martin and Miss Kate M. Gordon, respectively.

The "Golden Lane" demonstration, staged by the Nationals today, was the most elaborate and picturesque suffrage display ever given in St. Louis. Several thousand women, variously estimated from 6,000 to 8,000 garbed in yellow sashes and bearing yellow suffrage banners and umbrellas, formed a lane on both sides of the street, leading to the convention hall. They were stationed four feet apart, facing the center of the street. They did not march, save more than a few hundred feet toward the close of the demonstration.

But They Had to Talk.

The demonstration was far from "talkless" as it had been advertised. For just a few minutes after it started, the women stood up straight, faced forward, and did not say a word. But the men folks who came along seemed interested and in a very short time all good resolutions and promises of silence to "General" Updegraff, in charge of the demonstration, went awry and the talk started. None of the workers shouted at passing delegations, however, which was the result that the "general" wanted to attain. She desired a dignified display, and it was all of that.

Most of the Democratic state delegations passed down the lane and all were respectful. The Pennsylvania delegation scored by ordering its band to play while passing the art museum, where a tableuax was displayed, and singing, "We are for you, we are for you, you're a brave little band."

Most of the men removed their hats. A small delegation of men, wearing suffrage badges, lined up with the women.

"Liberty" Tableaux.

The tableuax was the most striking picture of the entire display. It was a triangular formation on the steps of the art museum. Ranged about a goddess of liberty figure were 13 women dressed in white representing the 12 enfranchised states and Alaska. Farther down the steps were figures, dressed in gray, representing the partly enfranchised states, and manacled figures, garbed in black impersonated the states in which the women have no voting rights. Other women at the base of the triangle represented the suffrage countries of Denmark, Iceland, New Zealand, Tasmania, Australia, Finland, Norway and the Isle of Man.

to influence the course of American lives and policies in the interest of foreign powers. Such organizations are condemned and any political party which seeks to take advantage of such influences is denounced."

This would be followed by a declaration to make it clear that the plank is in no way to be taken as a reflection upon the great body of naturalized citizens, irrespective of the race or origin.

The Tariff Plank.

Representative Rainey, of Illinois, who is leading the administration fight in the House for the Tariff Commission bill, will draw the tariff plank. Besides praising the present tariff law, it is planned to declare for a protective tariff for the dyestuff industry for a period of probably five years. Some of the Democrats expect a contest in the committee over such a protective feature, but it will be pointed out that no dyestuff industry of proportions now exists in America and that duties are intended solely to protect a new industry from the dumping of European dyes which is expected to follow the war and the resumption of ocean transportation from the Central Empires.

Conferences among leaders which have followed the arrival of Secretary Baker with first-hand words from President Wilson on many features of the declaration of principles, brought the status of the Democratic platform tonight to a point where aside from the all-important issue of foreign affairs, it stood substantially as follows:

Relations With Foreign Powers.

No specific mention would be made of Mexico and that subject would be covered b yimplication in general decovered by implication in general de-United States with other governments. This portion of the platform would declare unequivocally for the right of every nation to regulate its own international affairs and would point out that this government would be satisfied with nothing less for itself.

American Neutrality.

Rights of American citizens would be dealt with in a long plank declaring for the protection at home and abroad. In a defense of American neutrality as strict and honest, one of the provisions would make an apparent, although not a specific, reference to charges of partiality to the Entente Allies and would point out that question involving not life, but only property, can be settled by indemnity and reparation when the passions of war have subsided.

Permanent Peace Tribunal.

A permanent peace tribunal would be advocated in one of the platform planks as a court of arbitral justice to which all disputes between nations should be referred. How far the platform may reflect the President's recent declaration of willingness to have the United States join a world league to enforce peace by a common police force is not yet determined.

While the platform would deal with the peaceful settlement of disputes between nations it would be outspoken in its declarations that the navy should be of proportions and efficiency to the Monroe Doctrine and that the standing army should be sufficient to secure the country against unexpected aggression.

Preparation for Defense.

The platform, in the same connection, would declare for a sufficient reserve force to secure the nation against invasion and aggression at all times. Coupled with this declaration for a strong army and navy would be a straight forward pronouncement against all wars of aggrandizing and against allations of territorial aggression. This would be intended as a declaration to the world that the United States as the foremost spokesman for peace and judicial settlement of disputes, makes its military preparations not for aggression but for defense.

Internal Questions.

Touching internal questions the platform would declare for an eight-hour day for working men and also civil service pensions with a declaration that the government should care for those upon whom it depends to man its operating machinery. One plank would deal with child labor and another would advocate legislation in the interest of labor in all government institutions.

In several succeedings planks the legislative record of the administration would be set forth with references to the Federal Reserve law, the trade commission act, the shipping bill, the tariff commission bill, rural credits legislation and other measures passed by Congress or now being pressed by the administration. Then the platform would contain a definite pronouncement that the programme now under way is completed there will be no more legislation, which the business world could regard as restraining; in short, business would be promised a rest from congressional interferenceces.

Peace and Prosperity.

The draft as Secretary Baker brought it from the White House made no claims for general approval of the President's course for "peace and prosperity" but President Wilson's friends here are determined that the platform would not be complete without a strong presentment on that point and Senator Husting, of Wisconsin, was assigned to prepare a plank, with the suggestion that it be drafted in terms sufficiently strong to make it one of the keynotes of the campaign. The enthusiastic reception today of Temporary Chairman Glynn's speech of justification of the President's policies in keeping the country at peace had lent force to this plan.

Woman Suffrage.

A plank on woman suffrage which was suggested by the President himself probably will be redrafted. Some of the resolutions committeemen were of the opinion that it might be regarded as not sufficiently definite. Indications tonight are that the plank will be not unlike the Republican plank recognizing the right of suffrage for women, but holding to the right of the states to regulate the ballot themselves.

The platform committee organized today by electing Senator Stone chairman, and Lewis Bicknell, of South Dakota, secretary. It started public hearings with President Gompers of the American Federation of Labor, who presented 16 labor planks similar to those offered to the Republicans in Chicago last week. Senator Stone said he did not know whether the prohibition forces would present their views to the committee.

Party Has Helped Labor.

President Gompers began by declaring that the Democratic party had done well by labor but it must go further. He said the Republican committee had asked the labor representatives to condeuse their demands and "when they appeared in the Republican platform it took a microscope to see them."

Mrs. W. I. Thomas, of Chicago, representing the Woman's Peace Party and speaking, she said, for Jane Addams, told the committee the time was ripe for a plank by which the United States might take the lead in establishing an international court of justice and for another for a referendum vote before the United States could declare war except when its territory was invaded or a treaty guaranteed by it had been violated.

NO NEW DEVELOPMENTS IN THE SITUATION IN MEXICO.

Presence of American Troops Only One Element of Unrest.

Washington, June 14.—With all government departments closed on observance of flag day there were no developments here today in the grave Mexican situation. The few telegrams which reached the War and State Departments contained nothing of importance.

Whatever is to be the outcome of the involved situation beyond the border, officials here are certain that the presence of American troops on Mexican soil is only one element and perhaps a lesser one, among those contributing to unrest in Mexico. The real key to the situation, many of those in close touch with it believe, is the apparent collapse of the de facto government's effort to adjust the financial problem in default of substantial foreign aid.

Consular reports have indicated growing uneasiness among the Mexican people, owing to the money stringency. The country has been flooded with issue after issue of worthless paper while its diminished stock of precious metal has been squeezed again and again to find the means of paying for war material and other governmental supplies.

It is anticipated in London that David Lloyd-George will take the place of the late Earl Kitchener, as British secretary for war. In case Mr. Lloyd-George accepts the portfolio, it is not believed that he will give up entirely his present duties as minister of munitions.

TIRED, NERVOUS, RUN-DOWN

Liver Clogged and Poisoning the System—Tollo Water Will Clean Your Liver and Start you Feeling Good in Half an Hour.

Too much rich, starchy food clogs the liver. The drains become choked with waste matter and cannot discharge the bile as nature requires. When the little bile tubes in the liver become stopped, the bile is gradually forced back into the system, making the skin yellow and the tongue coated. The stomach gets upset, causing gas to form, you feel stuffy and uncomfortable after every meal, have a dull or sick headache and become tired, nervous and rundown.

The surest and quickest relief is a Tollo Water Liver bath. Get a 15-cent bottle from any drug store and take a third of a tumbler full in a glass of plain water before breakfast or at any time on an empty stomach. In half an hour after you have taken the first glass it will dissolve and flush out all the waste that is clogging the liver, leaving every tiny tube clean and fresh.

When the liver is clean and active you can eat what you like without suffering afterwards; you will never be constipated, nervous and unstrung.

Tollo Water acts quicker and surer than calomel. It flushes and bathes the liver without irritation and does not make you sick or leave you weak and exhausted.

To get the best results and be sure you are rid of all the poison your system has absorbed you should take it every morning for a few days. You will notice your skin clearing up after the first day, but it should be continued until your natural healthy color returns.

New York, June 14.—Jimmy Lavender, former Virginia Leaguer, pitched a one-hit game against Mathewson today and Chicago beat New York 4 to 0, making it three out of four. Kauff's infield hit, which took a bad hop in front of Lavender in the seventh, kept Lavender from duplicating his no-hit game against the Giants last season. Mathewson was given wretched support. Only three of the hits off him were clean and none of the runs were earned.

DOWN HOMERS AND PETERSBURG DIVIDE A DOUBLEHEADER ON THE RAILROADERS' HOME TOWN

(Special Star Telegram.)

Rocky Mount, N. C., June 14.—Petersburg won the first game and Rocky Mount the second, in a double bill here today. First game looked to be cinched for the home team, when the ninth came around, with the score 3 to 2 in favor of the locals. Before this, Petersburg had scored two because the umpire "went to sleep" and missed a trick play at third. The locals scored on bunched hits.

Petersburg won in ninth after the first up had been retired followed by a bad peg to first, a hit, an out which scored one run and three safeties. Up to ninth inning, Applegate had pitched a great game, but in the last frame seemed to weaken very perceptibly. Poole, for the visitors, pitched his usual slow, steady game and got better the longer the game went.

The second game was won by the score of 3 to 0. Teague pitched and had the visitors at his mercy. Mullin was batted hard in spots.

Asheville, even although last year's convention had been held here.

President Armfield then delivered his annual address, which was the principal event of the evening. Mr. Armfield called attention to the devastation of the European war, and declared that, among other things, it is upsetting the financial situation of the world. He declared that only the future could tell where the financial capital of the world wil be and that indication point to New York, with the United States as the greatest money power in the world. He said that the bankers of North Carolina will share in the prosperity thus attained, as North Carolina has vast resources and is one of the leading states in the Union and her banks are among the best in the country.

He discussed preparedness for handling the finances of the world, and told the bankers they must do their part.

Following the address of President Armfield, the convention adjourned until tomorrow morning.

proposition, modified by ours, you couldn't accept it?"

"We would not accept it," was Garretsons' reply. "But," he added, "I want it distinctly understood we could."

"Now I will say this," Chairman Lee declared, "this thing is to our mind as well as yours quite a serious proposition. It involves substantially all the railroads in the country and, it seems to me we cannot break until we are definitely prepared to say to each other—we are done! Tomorrow morning, I think, we will definitely tell you how we stand on the whole business."

Mr. Garretson said if the offer of the railroads was fair, a settlement might be reached.

"We have an immense settling power on our side," he declared, "although the power of initiative lies altogether with our rank and file. We can settle at any stage of the game, but a settlement would be absolutely valueless that was counter to that rank and file. This is a preliminary crisis, not the final one."

SELECTED.

Interned at Elba. That's all.

The best way to get anything is to keep on after it while it is in sight.

The man who goes fishing and does his fishing in the basket shows a willingness to let all his pals catch all the fish that are fools enough to bite.

Russia's conversation is confined to the open season for Austrians. The fortunes and misfortunes of war come to those who wait and those who never wait.

If the Progressives are up in the air with no place to light, what's the matter with volplaning to the bandwagon of Woodrow Wilson till the cyclone is over?

Roosevelt used to be worried over the disconcerting silence of Hughes. He now has a chance to hand out an ominous silence that will enable Hughes to indulge in some perturbation himself.

The Colonel has finally decided that he is not in politics. He told the newspaper men so, but it was no news to such a bunch of cynics as the boys whose business it is to watch the mills of the gods grind.

America first! This is no time for enigmatical verbiage and sandfiddler drills on the plain everyday subject of following the flag in the hand of a man who has made enemies because he has stood for it during two years of the severest trial.

Mr. Hughes' fine personality is about the only asset of the Republican party for the coming campaign, and if he doesn't be careful how he undertakes to impersonate Roosevelt in order to secure the latter's support he will lose the personality asset.

The Baltimore Sun mentions the mentionable fact that "somebody suggests putting Taft on the Supreme Bench." However, the prevailing idea at Oyster Bay is that it's no use to disturb Professor Taft's four years' rest on the mat.

If you miss the great treat to be had from reading the synopsis of Governor Glynn's keynote speech in this morning's paper, don't blame us. We are telling you it is a gem and a masterpiece. If you are a true American patriot, it will probably thrill you like it did the Democratic National convention yesterday.

Regular Democrats, progressive Democrats, prohibition Democrats, and anti-sumptuary law Democrats are represented at the St. Louis convention. Sporting Democrats need not think they are left, for the dapper Senator Tom Taggart, of Indiana, is right there to see that a gentleman's game shall be played on a square deal schedule.

Associate Justice of the United States Supreme Court tendered his resignation without giving the slightest excuse for it. President Wilson detected his reason and accepted his resignation without a single expression of regret. This shows how easy it is for us to go through life without making out like we are sorry when we are not.

Our idea of chagrin would be manifested in getting gay enough to personally conduct a brass band with a view to serenading a bunch of overgrown whiskers. "Believe me," we have never marched around with a band unless all hands agreed that the whole demonstration had something to do with a lot of dimples. Whiskers are welcome to all the cold, callous and careworn enthusiasm we could ever get up on their account. This is no joke.

PUTTING THIS AND THAT TOGETHER.

One of the big questions in the presidential campaign is what will become of the Progressive party vote. The pre-convention news from the Democratic National convention in St. Louis, published in yesterday's Star, indicated that President Wilson and other Democratic leaders consider that a large proportion of the Progressive party vote might be secured for the Democracy. It was said at St. Louis that the President desired the adoption of a platform so progressive that it will appeal to and attract members of the Progressive party, but the idea in taking such a step would be to do it without extending an open, direct invitation to the Progressives.

Meanwhile, the Progressives, whose executive committee is to meet in Chicago ten days from tomorrow, will manage all this for themselves. Mr. Colby, one of the Progressive national committeemen, gave out a statement in New York a day or two ago, suggesting that Progressives should go slowly in determining their future course and to do justice to President Wilson in their consideration, he was reported as saying. Democratic National Chairman McCombs immediately wired Mr. Colby to the effect that "Progressive Democrats cordially and sincerely offer the Progressives safety." However, accompanying that invitation was a rather undiplomatic reference to Colonel Roosevelt, to whom the Progressives are loyal and who are more than liable to resent the invitation, coupled as it was with that kind of reference to their leader.

The Hon. William J. Bryan, attending the Democratic convention as a newspaper representative, also proposes an actual pact with the Progressives so their support for the Democratic ticket can be secured. Meanwhile, up in New York leading Progressives were conferring with Colonel Roosevelt about the future attitude of the Progressive party. Messrs. Geo. W. Perkins, Oscar Straus, Chester S. Rowell and Governor Hiram Johnson were among the Progressives in conference with the Colonel. The conference idea, it was given out, was that no action should be taken by individual Progressives or by the various state and local organizations until the action of the Progressive national committee had been taken.

All the foregoing appeared in separate dispatches in yesterday's Star, and now we come to where we invite you to put this and that together. The this part of it was a New York dispatch concerning Mr. Hughes' reception in New York. Note that Mr. Everett Colby, the Progressive hereinbefore mentioned, called on Judges Hughes to pledge his support. So did Theodore Roosevelt Douglas, the Colonel's nephew. Mr. Oscar Straus wired his pledge of support to Mr. Hughes and afterwards called to do so. These were the Progressives reported at the conference with Roosevelt. If at that conference they agreed to advise Progressives to wait a while, why do these leaders themselves rush to Judge Hughes and pledge themselves to him? Possibly they were afraid many Progressives might pledge themselves to Wilson before the "regular programme" could be made known to them.

Putting this and that together, we infer that the Roosevelt conference agreed to recommend that the Progressives support Hughes.

THE DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET.

It would be difficult to conceive of a stronger State ticket than that with which the Democratic party in North Carolina goes before the people in the coming campaign. All the names on the ticket are those of men of known ability and of exceptionally high character and men who have already been tried as public servants and measured up to the high standard of faithfulness and efficiency necessary to receive the plaudits of their constituency. All of them except three are now serving in the offices to which they seek re-election and the fact that they have been re-nominated in a State-wide legalized primary, in which every Democrat had a right to cast his vote and have it counted, is evidence of the satisfactory service they have rendered heretofore.

The ticket is headed by a man who, while never having filled the office of Governor, of course, has served the State faithfully and brilliantly as its attorney general for two terms. In addition to being one of the State's most brilliant legal lights, he is one of her deepest thinkers on all subjects, civic, economic and social, appertaining to the varied interests of the Commonwealth, a man of the highest and cleanest character, a gentleman of the most charming personality, of keen wit, of delightful humor, an orator of unusual force and impelling eloquence and withal a man of the people, who is perfectly at home in any gathering, among any class of North Carolina's citizenship. In Thomas W. Bickett as the party's standard bearer in the coming campaign, the Democracy of North Carolina has a prime asset.

Second on the ticket, in their constitutional order, is a rapidly rising young lawyer and statesman who already has had much experience in the affairs of state notwithstanding the fact that it seems almost but yesterday that he was a student in the A. & M. College, of which he is now and has been for several years a member of the board of trustees. He has served his State with eminent ability as a member of the Senate and was honored by that body with the place of president pro tem., during the session of 1915. Hence he has had special training in the most important duty that a lieutenant governor has to perform, that of presiding officer of the Senate, and those who know O. Max Gardner know that he is all that could be desired in that capacity, able, alert, energetic, earnest and of high and noble ideals.

The office of attorney general will be a new one to Judge J. S. Manning, but his experience on the Supreme Court bench, to say nothing of his work in various other places of public service, together with his well known reputation as one of the very ablest lawyers in the State, warrant the statement that North Carolina is to be congratulated that a man of his eminent qualifications is to serve the State as attorney general.

Superintendent of Public Instruction J. Y. Joyner and State Auditor W. P. Wood have given such eminent satisfaction in the offices which they occupy that there was not a member of their party in the State who would run against them in the recent primary, and they were re-nominated without opposition. It is a truth which may as well be stated here, that the marvelous record of educational progress and development in North Carolina since Dr. Joyner was appointed superintendent by the late lamented Governor Chas. B. Aycock is one of the greatest assets the Democratic party in this State possesses, if it does not outweigh all others, and to the head of the Department of Education more than to any other one man is due the credit for this proud record.

Another asset of inestimable value to the party is the tremendous progress and advancement of the agricultural interests of the State during recent years, fostered, promoted, encouraged and aided by the State Department of Agriculture, headed by Commissioner W. A. Graham. The people of the State realize and appreciate the splendid service rendered the Commonwealth through the Department of Agriculture under Major Graham, else in the recent primary they would have chosen another to succeed him, for his opponents were men in every respect eminently qualified for and worthy of the office.

The same might be said of the other State officers whose records received the O. K. of the Democracy of the State in the recent primary—Secretary of State J. Bryan Grimes, Treasurer B. R. Lacy, Commissioner of Insurance J. R. Young, Commissioner of Labor and Printing M. L. Shipman and the members of the Corporation Commission as now constituted. In their respective fields of State service they have been faithful and efficient, and progress and development and greater service to the people has been the rule in each of these departments.

Aside from the record of all these men as public servants, we doubt seriously whether many states in the Union today can boast a set of officials whose private and personal life and character will match the aggregation which the Democracy of North Carolina offers the electorate this year.

THE DEMOCRATIC KEYNOTE.

The keynote speech of the Hon. Martin H. Glynn, former governor of New York, at the opening of the Democratic National convention at St. Louis yesterday, was a powerful and irrefutable presentation of National Democratic achievements for the people of America during the three brief years of Democratic administration at Washington. The Star this morning publishes a full synopsis of Governor Glynn's comprehensive array of the record, and every intelligent man and woman in North Carolina should read it, in order to get an intelligent point of view of administrative history of a really marvelous kind.

The record is an eye-opener. The analysis in detail will stagger the opponents of the Democracy themselves. All Democrats will be proud of what the Democratic administration has done for the country. In actual comparative particulars, the Democrats in three years have done for the country and its people more than the Republican party has done in all its fifty years of running the government for the privileged classes.

The record of President Wilson and Congress has compassed the marvelous, and fair-minded people are bound to admit it. They can't get away from the achievements that are written in history and put into law. Read it for yourself and be your own judge, unless you are prejudiced and have no use for reason's sway.

THE HUGHES PARTY.

There is no reason why the Republican party should be placed in power in November, but the best reason why it should not be given another lease of power is that there is nothing for it to do. That is manifest because of the fact that the G. O. P. has dwindled down to a personality—we might say an individuality—typified in that able and splendid gentleman, the Hon. Chas. E. Hughes. The party is banking alone on its head, but however much the head deserves to be honored, that is no reason why the party of special interests should be so soon trusted again.

Why, in its platfolm, the G. O. P. promises a lot of things, but the weakness of its proposition is made rather ridiculous by the fact that a large proportion of the legislative measures demanded in its platform have already been enacted by the Democratic Congress. Others dmanded are already on the programme of the Democratic administration, so there is no need of a new administration or a new Congress to take the place of those which are doing the things which even the Republican convention declares for. That is good Republican endorsement of a constructive Democratic administration as pointed out by Senator Stone, who is chairman of the resolutions committee of the Democratic National convention now in session at St. Louis.

Take a Jitney Joy Ride

Here's a trip you will enjoy. The spicy road leads straight to the grocer man—and Zu Zu, the spicy little snaps that please everybody.

Mr. Hughes cannot be the Republican party himself, and that party is not likely to carry out Democratic ideas any more than it did its promise to revise the tariff in 1908. The people no doubt remember that for fifty years the Republicans had a chance to do what they promise to do at this time, even in the way of Americanism and national preparedness, conjure words that all parties are committed to, one about as earnestly as another. No one party either typifies or represents all the patriotism of this country, so it is more ridiculous than otherwise for any party to claim what does not and never can belong to its exclusively.

Mr. Hughes' fine personality is all there is to the Republican party, which itself has been weighed in the balances and found wanting. Having Judge Hughes at its head is no excuse for giving serious consideration to the party which has waked up from a Rip Van Winkle sleep with the hope of getting back into power in order to become the benefactor of the interests of which it is yet the sponsor in national politics. Only the tariff beneficiaries need a Republican administration. Their victims certainly do not want any more tariff exploitation for many years to come.

A recent occurrence at Chicago shows that removing a man from the political arena to the Supreme Court bench is no way to shelve him so he will quit thinking about politics. The precedent is now set that a man can abandon the bench when the presidential chair is in sight. The bench is very sacred, of course, but solemnity pervades it only so long as forward looking men don't care to make a regular business of solemnity. The bench is given to understand for the future that it will have to stand on its own legs, for any two-legged man on the bench is liable to walk off at any time and take chances on walking the plank.

As soon as the Chicago convention nominated Hughes, the New York newspaper men rushed out to Oyster Bay with the expectation that Colonel Roosevelt would say something for publication. He refused to say a word and the newspaper men might have known that he would do so, for the reason that there is a time when every man stops talking. That's when he is paralyzed.

CURRENT COMMENT

We wrote our friend Zeb Vance Walser some good advice before the flowers had bloomed. We told him that Teddy was Impossible. We admonished him to conserve his zeal for the general campaign—but he refused to heed our timely warning. We didn't tell him so—but he knew we had read the stars. But in the exuberance of youth—in the shackles of a strange hallucination he saw nothing but the now deposed of Oyster Bay. He went to Chicago fully determined to nominate his idol. And b'gosh, he nominated him—but the idol turned. He refused to accept the nomination tendered—the nomination which Zeb had handed to him. Naturally there is in Lexington today another heart chilled by the bitter frosts of ingratitude. There is now a running mate for Varner in the field of Solitude—in the chase of oblivion. However, both Varner and Walser will live to cherish new idols—to see things differently than the past has revealed them to them. Let us, in this sad hour, walk in gum shoes, speak in whispers and silently give time a chance to heal the hearts that bleed.—Greensboro Record (Ind.)

Mr. Hughes will not be elected. His defeat is to be desired, among many other reasons, for this good and sufficient reason that the invasion of the Supreme Court's chamber by needy politicians in search of a leader, now for the first time in American history successfully accomplished, may be rebuked and made a precedent too dangerous for following. The ermine that we have been taught to believe should touch nothing less spotless than itself must not be donned for a few seasons' wear to be stripped off by a reckless party convention forcing its wearer into the dust and turmoil of the political arena. The Republicans have assailed the purity of that great bench. They have put the Justices who sit there under the most irresistible temptation to turn their minds aside from the questions that alone concern them, to let their thoughts wander to fields of contention where they should have no part. It is disturbing and a menace to the judicial calm and impartiality which should prevail in that chamber and to which by the acceptance of appointment Justices of the Supreme Court should devote their minds and their lives.—New York Times.

Before any aspiring artist begins work upon a great historical painting in which Colonel Roosevelt will appear shattered and grief-stricken in the act of renouncing politics forever, let him pause and reflect. We have heard this thing before. There was a time when the Colonel was surfeited with the Presidency, and he has been chasing it ever since. There was a time when he consigned the Republican party to oblivion, and nobody worked harder to secure its favor this year than he. There was a time only a few weeks ago when at Trinidad he said he was not a candidate, and he never discovered the truth of the assertion until the regular Republican convention adjourned after nominating another man. Colonel Roosevelt is more of a political widow than Benjamin F. Butler ever was. General Butler was a widow in the sense that, full of years and experience, he was ready to receive proposals. The Colonel has not yet realized the particular type of his widowhood, but to us it is exceedingly familiar. Just now he is not to be consoled, and he even contemplates something rash. In a little while he will be reconciled, and the first eligible political party that chances to cross his path should be on its guard. The Widow Roosevelt is comfortably fixed. A great many wise old wooers have been fooled by this atractive relict already. No doubt others are on the way, and the lamentations now heard at Sagamore Hill are only the advertisement by which the mourner expects to attract the sympathetic and the infatuated.—New York World.

WHITEVILLE REBUILDING.

Columbus Secures Supervisor of Rural Schools.

Whiteville, N. C., June 13.—There is a spirit of progress being shown here and the signs point to much activity at Whiteville this year. Mr. J. D. Maultsby is removing two old frame stores from their sites near the bank of Whiteville. Brick buildings will take their places very soon. The new brick store of Powell & Co., W. J. Benton, R. E. Hill and Watkins on Railroad street, near the depot, add a great deal to the appearance of South Whiteville. There are two other brick buildings to be erected there this summer for merchants. These new stores take the place of those destroyed by fire last winter.

Mr. Oscar High will soon begin work on his two-story brick store near the court house. It will be one of the best in the county.

The county commissioners are going to have the Wilmington-Charlotte Highway marked with the colors white and yellow all along the route through this county. This work will be finished before the Good Roads Convention at Wrightsville next week.

The board of education on yesterday elected Miss Eliza Parker, formerly the principal of the Hallsboro school, as supervisor of the rural schools of the county. It is the purpose of the board to have Miss Parker give all of her time to this work. It is proposed to encourage the girls' tomato clubs and other domestic science work in all sections of the county. Miss Parker is an enthusiastic school teacher, and has made the school at Hallsboro one of the best in the county. Dr. W. Ross Davis, M. Mears and A. H. Porter are the members of the board of education. The school committeemen for all the county schools have been appointed this week for the year's work.

HEALTH IS WEALTH
by John B. Huber, A.M., M.D.

And yet people wonder why so many babies die.

The Long vs. The Short Haul.

I HAVE seen a very striking series of pictures illustrating the disadvantages of cow's milk for infants, as compared with the milk which nature intended it should take from its mother's breast. Here is the long haul as the pictures show it:

Seventy per cent. of city babies get their milk—their only food—through a tube at least sixty miles long.

It takes from 36 to 42 hours or longer for this milk to run from the cow end of the tube to the baby end of the tube.

This long haul tube is open in many places; consequently there are many chances of the baby's food being polluted.

Maybe, at the very start, there is a diseased cow—with tuberculosis or foot and mouth disease, or something like that.

Or a filth-infested stable or a dirty dairy, with possibly walking typhoid milkers, may be stationed somewhere along that tube. Or the tube runs through overheated places where the milk will become ideal culture mediums for the disease germs. Then there is the long railway transportation (the metropolis gets its milk from six different States). Next comes the city milk depot, then the milk wagon, then the milk bottle, left often for hours, on warm mornings, in an unsanitary area way; then into the home; into the feeding bottle, which is not always scrupulously clean; and so finally to the infant. Thus, in its passage through that long and tortuous tube is the cow's milk liable to any number of dangerous contaminations.

And now the short haul: Here the mother-fed baby gets its milk, fresh, pure and healthful—and germless. Come summer time many a baby will suffer dreadfully from the dysenteries, the summer complaints and like diseases of the stomach and bowels. Practically all these are germ diseases; and they are suffered almost entirely by the bottle-fed babies.

You can't improve on God's plan; trying to do so, or trying to get away from God's plan, is oftentimes a most disastrous business, with profound sorrow and contrition for an aftermath.

I should not finish without observing that the milk business today is vastly more sanitary than it was twenty or even ten years ago; and yet the dangers to the infant here mentioned still exist, and all too frequently.

THE SIGNS OF EARLY CONSUMPTION.

Answer to W. B. Y.: The signs of early consumption or tuberculosis are: 1. A cough lasting a month except in whooping cough. This does not always mean consumption, but should certainly call for an examination at once and without fail by a competent physician. 2. Hoarseness lasting several weeks. 3. Poor appetite, especially in the morning, indigestion, loss of weight and strength, pallor, a generally run down condition, a "tired feeling." 4. Spitting, especially in the morning. 5. Night sweats. 6. A streak of blood in the sputum. 7. Fever in the afternoon, shown by flushed face, and alternating with chilly sensations. The doctor will make an examination of the spittle for the consumptive germ. But one must not imagine there is no consumption if this germ cannot be found, not even after several sputum examinations have been made. Indeed, these germs may not be found thus until the disease is far advanced. In the presence of the above symptoms, especially after a severe cold, grip, bronchitis, whooping cough, measles, typhoid, malaria, pneumonia, pleurisy, or any other weakening disease, the case is certainly one of consumption, though the microscope may reveal no germs.

SUMMER HYGIENE.

Answer to C. H.: To be well in summer, keep occupied in working hours, don't fret about the heat, rest when you can; keep out of the sun, avoid the draft of the electric fan; dress lightly, but protect the back and the abdomen; drink several glasses of pure water, not too cold, every day; cut out the alcohol; limit the fats and the starches; go in heavily for fruits; don't eat anything that has been exposed to dust and flies.

WILMINGTON IS PART OF BANNER DISTRICT

Furnishes Greatest Number of Army Recruits

In Proportion to Population Than Any Other in Whole Country—Big Boom in Recruiting Expected After July 1.

"The recruiting officer wishes to congratulate the members of this recruiting party on their success in obtaining recruits, particularly since the opening of the auxiliary stations. Our district shows a larger number of recruits per 1,000 of population, than any other part of the United States."

The above interesting statement is made by Lieut. Charles T. Smart, recruiting officer in charge of the Charlotte district, which includes Wilmington and other cities in North and South Carolina, in a letter just received by Corp. George Keller in charge of the Wilmington station. The writer also seeks to spur the members of the recruiting party in the district to further efforts to make it the banner recruiting district in the whole country without having to make use of the phrase, "per 1,000 of population."

At the present time, it is pointed out, the army offers better opportunities for advancement and promotion than at any previous period in the history of the service. "By the terms of the new army bill which takes effect July 1, and which more than doubles the standing army," the local recruiting officer states, "unlimited opportunities are offered to young men who enlist in the service." While the number of enlistments from Wilmington have shown no material increase since the new bill has been enacted into law, with the greater inducements offered, it is the opinion of the local army representative that no difficulty will be experienced in obtaining the new quota of recruits.

In the first place, any young man up to 22 years of age, may after one year with the colors, take an examination to West Point and become a candidate for a commission, which, if secured will place him in line for promotion to the rank of general in the army, should he show the requisite ability. The examinations for the Academy are fairly rigid, but there are schools at the various posts throughout the country and the ambitious young man who enlists, will be given every incentive to strive for a commission. After one year's service soldiers who have not reached the age of 30 years, may take the examination for second lieutenant. If passed, this makes him a full-fledged officer, which in the Coast Artillery entitles him to a yearly salary of about $1,700 per annum with liberal allowances for quarters and the like. Other branches of the service pay almost as good salaries to the commissioned officers.

Men who are unable to take the examination for commissions, are by no means debarred from promotion. They can by habits of industry and soldierly bearing and attention to duties raise themselves in a short time above the ratings of privates, as in each company there are 44 ratings, which include first sergeant, sergeant, supply sergeant, mess sergeant, corporal, mechanic and bugler. All these positions pay well. Any enlisted man may, by becoming proficient in marksmanship get from $2 to $5 extra monthly, according to the amount of ability he displays in this line, says the local representative.

The new bill provides for vocational schools which the enlisted man may attend two hours daily. About two hours daily are taken up with drills, so it can readily be seen that the service offers a man plenty of leisure for study to secure a commission. These schools will teach the various mechanical subjects and prepare a man to do high class work in the trades, if he should desire to leave the service later in life.

The new term of enlistment is for four years with the colors and three years in the reserves. The reservists may live at home and go where they like, but receive a certain amount of compensation as the government may at any time call on them in an emergency. With a view to securing a large body of men trained in military science, it is further provided that if a soldier shows proficiency after serving one year he may leave the army and be placed on the reserve list for six years.

Many people entertain the idea that any one may enlist in the army and that it is a favoirte place for men who have made failures of their lives. That this is an entirely false notion is easily known by the fact that prospective recruits must show good characters, and must be in absolute good health. To illustrate the fact that Uncle Sam is particular, 614 recruits in the Charlotte district, of which the Wilmington station is a part, were rejected and only 136 accepted during the month of April.

While recruits have the choice of the branch of the service they will enter, they have no say as to where they shall be assigned for service. They may choose among the various branches of the service, which includes infantry, cavalry, artillery, coast artillery, or staff service which includes the signal, recruiting, supply and other departments.

The recruiting officer at Wilmington is anxiously awaiting the time when the bill becomes effective, and he expects to be kept much busier than in the past with applicants.

PROBABLE CAUSE IS FOUND

Against Two Negroes, Charged With Storebreaking, Captured by Police—Other Cases Tried.

Probable cause was found yesterday morning by Recorder Empie in the case of John Allen and James Henderson, colored, the two men who were caught by the police in the store of Shrier & Solomon early Tuesday morning, and they were bound over to the June term of Superior Court. In default of bond in the sum of $1,000 each they were committed to the county jail. Goods valued at more than $900, which is alleged the men were in the act of carrying off, were displayed as exhibits in the case. W. P. Gafford, Esq., appeared for the above defendants, neither of whom was placed on the witness stand.

In the case of Richard Sampson, charged with complicity in the robbery of the store, the State asked for a continuance and secured it after an arduous effort on the part of William Bellamy, Esq., the defendant's counsel to have his client given an immediate hearing. Sampson is charged by Allen and Henderson with having let them into the store for a consideration, he being at the time an employe of the firm of Shrier & Solomon.

Mr. Bellamy made a strong appeal for an immediate hearing for his client insisting that under the constitution the latter was entitled to a speedy trial and that the tSate had no evidence against him. Solicitor George Peschau replied that he had no intention of dropping his investigation of Sampson's connection with the case, and that while he regretted the inconvenience to Mr. Bellamy and his client, he intended to hold the defendant until he could have sufficient time to investigate Sampson's connection with the case. The solicitor declared that he was not prepared to try the case ,and that if he were forced into a trial of the cause at the time, he would have the defendant re-arrested before he reached the street, if he should be released.

The Solicitor further declared that at the time Allen and Henderson were caught in the store, they confessed to the police that Sampson had that day arranged to let them into the basement for a consideration of $10 paid him. The Solicitor stated that he wanted to investigate the alleged admissions made by the two negroes, as of course, the confessions could not be used against Sampson as they were not made in his presence. He added that he wanted to put Allen and Henderson on the witness stand, but Mr. Gafford had instructed his clients for the present not to give any testimony on the ground that it might tend to incriminate them, and that both Allen and Henderson were obeying these instructions. The Recorder considered the request of the State a reasonable one and continued the hearing until today.

In the case of John Thomas, colored, charged with slapping his lady-love, the defendant was given a suspended judgment. Witnesses testified that the dusky damsel uttered "great lamentations," but John said that was just her way when mad, and that he had known her to lie down and kick and carry on "something outrageous" on the slightest provocation.

Dolphus Galloway, colored, charged with larceny from the dwelling house of one Hattie Monroe, was bound over for trial to the Superior Court. He was charged with entering Hattie's house while she was away one day and stealing a revolver and a suit of clothes. Dolph was found with the clothes in his possession and in attempting to explain to the Solicitor how he happened to have them, said that he heard his dog running a rabbit and started after him and found the suit sitting on the edge of the National cemetery fence way down in the swamp—and that he appropriated the bundle.

MISS FOSTER LEAVES FOR CHARLOTTE TO VISIT BROTHER

Physical Director of Y. W. C. A. for Past Year Returns Home.

Miss Grace M. Foster left last evening for Charlotte, N. C., to visit the family of her brother, Dr. E. H. Foster, Welfare Industrial Secretary of the International Committee of the Y. M. C. A.s. From Charlotte, Miss Foster will visit the mountains of Western North Carolina before returning to her home in Dayton, Ohio.

For the past eight months Miss Foster has been physical director of the Young Women's Christian Association, of this city, and during that time she has won the hearts of the many Wilmington people who have recognized and appreciated her excellent work and the Christian influence which she exerted over those with whom she came in contact. Her work, particularly among the young girls of the Association, has been a power for good that will remain with them as an incentive toward high ideals and purposes.

Before coming to Wilmington Miss Foster was engaged in gymnastic work in Toledo, Ohio; the Girls' Industrial Home, Delaware, Ill., and in Y. W. C. A. gymnasium work in Danville, Ill., and Jackson, Mich. She received her training at Chicago Normal School of Physical Education and graduated from that institution in 1910.

A large number of gymnasium girls and other friends of Miss Foster were at the train last evening to bid her farewell and extend wishes for her continued success in any field she may enter.

MERCHANTS ARE CO-OPERATING WITH GOOD ROADS PLANS.

Arranging to Decorate Windows and Boost "Good Roads" Prices.

Wilmington merchants are standing behind the plans of the Wilmington Highway Association to decorate their windows attractively and advertise "Good Roads" prices for the big convention of the North Carolina Good Roads Association, which will assemble at Wrightsville Beach next Wednesday. A number of letters have been received from merchants in response to a letter sent out by the Wilmington Highway Association, stating that they were pleased to co-operate in the movement.

It is expected that the enthusiasm and general sentiment for State highways will be paramount during the convention as the need for improved roads connecting up the more important cities has been manifest in no uncertain manner for some time and this is expected to be the key-note of the meetings. Activity in the interest of the Wilmington-Fayetteville highway on the eve of the convention is especially pronounced and the attendance of delegates in the interest of this project, which is of special significance to this section, will be unusually large. The attendance from the surrounding counties, which advices indicate will be very large, will be a feature of particular importance to the Wilmington people in advocacy of improved roads connecting this city with the interior.

FORM LOCAL BRANCH OF NATIONAL ASSOCIATION

Conductors and Motormen of Tidewater Power Co. Organize

Committee of New Organization Meet With General Manager A. B. Skelding to Arrange Satisfactory Working Scale.

With a view to adjusting satisfactorily any possible differences of opinion as to working arrangements between themselves and the Tidewater Power Company, the conductors and motormen of this company have formed a local branch of the Amalgamated Association Street & Electric Railway Employes of America, under the direction of Mr. Joseph C. Colgan, of Chicago, Ill., a member of the general executive board of the National organization, who has been in Wilmington since Monday.

The local branch which has been organized is understood to have as its members all the conductors and motormen in the employ of the Tidewater Company with the possible exception of a half dozen men. The charter has been secured from the headquarters of the National Association, the Wilmington branch being No. 708.

Mr. Colgan, who is a guest at the Hotel Wilmington, stated yesetrday that similar organizations have been formed in many cities of the South, including Charleston, Augusta and Asheville, as well as in many other leading cities of the country. The purpose of the National Association, he explained, is simply to enable employes to secure a satisfactory working arrangement with their employers. The Asheville association was organized 18 years ago, he stated, and has met with the cordial approval of the street car company.

While the relations existing between the Tidewater Power Company and its employes have always been of the pleasantest nature with never any cause for friction of any kind, it is understood that the reported contemplated action of the former to put on a one-man system for its city cars caused the conductors and motormen several weeks ago to form an organization or union for the purpose of effectually presenting their protest against any such action, which they felt, should it be installed, would inflict a hardship upon them.

Mr. Colgan and a committee representing the local association of street car men met Mr. A. B. Skelding, general manager of the Tidewater Power Company, at a conference yesterday afternoon which apparently was entirely satisfactory to both sides. However, it is understood that other conferences will be held this week. Neither the street car men nor officials of the Tidewater Power Company have made any statements as to any differences of opinion and it is not thought that there is any likelihood of any serious disagreement as to working conditions.

No announcement has been made by the Tidewater Power Company to the effect that it intended to put on a one-man system for the operation of its cars by which one man would act both as motorman and conductor, although for several months past the system has been in operation on the Carolina Place cars. It was understood that the latter was in the nature of an experiment.

Several meetings of the street car men have been held this week for the purpose of perfecting the local branch of the National Association.

NEW HANOVER TRUCK.

Potatoes, Cucumbers and Beans Going Forward From Section.

Potatoes, cucumbers and beans are now being shipped from the New Hanover trucking belt and growers generally are realizing very satisfactory prices. Several cars are loaded daily at Delgado, East Wilmington and Wrightsboro and while the shipments of beans are now about over "cukes" and "spuds" are just coming into their own and these crops are proving highly profitable, it is said.

Potatoes were quoted yesterday in Philadelphia at $4.50 per barrel and $4.75 in New York. Beans, the season for which is now about over, are bringing $1.00 per five-peck basket, though much of the crop was sold at from $3.50 per basket down. "Cukes" are now bringing $2.00 per basket, which is said to be a very satisfactory price. Large shipmnets of beans especially have gone out of this territory during the past two or three weeks and coupled with their success on lettuce, the vegetable growers of the Wilmington section are said to have done remarkably well this year.

KNIGHTS HAVE DEBATE

Messrs. D. W. Burruss and David Struthers Meet in Wordy Combat.

Those who were present at the weekly meeting of Clarendon Lodge, Knights of Pythias, on Tuesday night, met with an agreeable surprise. Without notice to the members, two of the most eloquent and knightly orators arranged for a debate, which lasted nearly an hour.

The debaters were Messrs. D. W. Burruss and Dave Struthers, the former selecting the affirmative and the latter the negative side of the question. The debate was interesting and instructive and the best that Clarendon Lodge has ever had. The debaters were well informed on their subject and were given unlimited time with their first speeches and rejoinders.

Messrs. A. C. Boney, G. H. Gerdes and L. F. Solee were appointed as judges and after being out 15 minutes returned a decision that the debate resulted in a tie.

VIRGINIAN RECALLS BATTLE.

Mr. C. W. Epps, Who is Visiting in Wilmington, Was at Big Bethel.

Mr. C. W. Epps, of Blackstone, Va., who is spending some time in Wilmington with his daughter, Mrs. John H. Beery, recalls with much interest the battle of Big Bethel which was fought in Virginia 55 years ago last Sunday. Mr. Epps was a member of Company E of the Third Virginia Cavalry which participated in this battle as did the Third North Carolina Infantry.

While a native of Virginia, Mr. Epps has very pleasant recollections of North Carolina for it was in this State that he spent several years in school. After completing his preparatory studies he went to Chapel Hill and was a student at the University of North Carolina.

Mr. Epps was in the thick of fighting at Big Bethel and in many of the other conflicts of the War Between the States.

NEED BETTER SHADE TREES

Annual Report of Tree and Park Commission Submitted to Council at Weekly Session Yesterday.

That the planting of laurel oaks in the place of mulberry and other species of short lived trees is greatly needed in Wilmington and that the work already begun in beautifying the streets by providing these beautiful oaks should be continued are some of the recommendations made by the Tree and Park Commission in its annual report which was submitted to City Council at its regular weekly meeting yesterday.

The report which was signed by Mr John J. Blair, chairman, and Mr. Adam Empie, secretary, severely condemns the placing of large conspicuous advertising billboards in the vicinity of public parks and recommends that steps be taken, by legislative enactment if necessary, to stop this practice. The report deals extensively with the work done by the Commission during the past year in the way of providing for parks and playgrounds in the planting of trees and shrubbery.

Following up the suggestions made in the annual report, City Attorney Ruark called attention to the recent proposal made by Mayor Moore and Councilman McCaig that in some of the outlying suburbs it might be possible to secure certain lots and blocks to be set aside as playgrounds and parks. City Attorney Ruark felt sure that the American Suburban Corporation would be glad to co-operate in this movement at Carolina Place and that the promoters of Carolina Court would do likewise. He also thought that the Wilmington suburban Corporation would furnish plots in the Southern part of the city. His suggestion was cordially endorsed by all the members of the Council and Councilman Bradshaw and Mr. Ruark were authorized to see what could be done.

Councilman Jones, in charge of the water and sewerage department, was authorized to advertise for bids for painting the stand pipe at the waterworks plant and also to advertise for bids on water meters.

A petition from the citizens of Carolina Place and Carolina Court, asking that a deep well be sunk at the corner of Wrightsville avenue and Orange street, was given favorable consideration.

Mayor Moore presided at the meeting which was attended by all the members of Council including Councilmen Jones, McCaig, Hall, Merritt, Bunting and Bradshaw. Mr. Walter H. Blair assistant city clerk and treasurer, acted as clerk in the absence of Capt. Thos. D. Meares, who is out of the city.

HONOR STUDENT AT DAVIDSON

Mr. Wm. Y. Sayad to Give Lecture in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church.

The record of Mr. Wm. Y. Syad, who is traveling in this section and will give a lecture in Memorial hal of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church on June 26 under the auspices of the Westminster Christian Endeavor Society, is an enviable one. Three years ago after he had been in the United States but 20 days he entered Davidson College a student. At that time he could speak only enough English to be understood, having studied some English at his home in Urumia, Persia. Mr. Sayad is a native of Persia, coming to this country from a Christian family to secure an education that will enable him to return to his own country as a preacher.

When first h ereached Davidson, Billy as he is known on the campus, took an active interest in athletics. He made the second team in foot ball in his second year and last year he made his "D." This is an excellent record for one who had never seen a football game or had any knowledge of the game before he came to America. With all his athletic achievements he has not been behind in his literary work. Faithful attendance to duties has won for him the good fellowship of all the students and the respect of the members of the faculty. He has continued his faithful work with a diligence that has been rewarded by the winning of the Junior Orator's medal, the most coveted prize in college.

Mr. Sayad is 21 years of age and has for the past summer traveled around giving illustrated lectures on Persia. As this country has been of peculiar interest for the past year on account of the European war he, with an odd way, gives the reasons and outcome of that great war on his historic country. His lectures have been interesting and instructive and he met with so much success last summer that he is taking the same course this summer.

Dr. M. M. O'Sullivan, a member of the Royal House of Surgeons, who lives on Main street, Banty, county of Cork, Ireland, wants to come to Wilmington to live and has written Mayor P. Q. Moore, asking for the position of health officer here, which the Irish physician states he understands to be vacant. How he got this information is not known as it happens that just now there is no such vacancy. Dr. O'Sullican makes his application in a very brief form, it being on a postcard and addressed to "His Worship, the Mayor, Town Hall, Wilmington, Carolina, United States of America."

"I beg to apply for the position of medical health officer which I believe is vacant," the Irish surgeon writes. "Hoping my application may meet with your approval, I remain, etc."

No one at the beach yesterday entered more enthusiastically into the celebration of Flag Day than young Luther Herring, the nine-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Herring, who are spending the summer at their cottage. His father provided him with a tent which the young fellow pitched in the yard and decorated with flags. Last night he placed three lanterns in front of the tent, each covered with colored paper. Practically all the work was done by the youngster.

UNTAGGED DOGS SHOULD HAVE THEIR LIVES INSURED AT ONCE

Otherwise They Are Liable to be Shot at Sunrise on Tuesday.

The police have a valuable assortment of life insurance policies which all dogs must have taken out in their favor by next Monday morning or run the risk of being shot at sunrise on no very distant date. These policies, which are of brass and should be worn around the neck by all dogs of low and high degree, is about the cheapest life insurance policies that are issued by the city government. Apparently "the female of the species is the more deadly of the two," applies to dogs, for our wise city fathers require two iron men to insure her life, while the owners of male dogs only have to pay one dollar. "No, it doesn't matter how little your dog is, he has to have a tag just the same." A pup is a potential dog and all pups must be insured, too.

The city didn't invest in all this handsome collection of tags just for the fun of it. They were bought to sell to people who have canine pets whose lives they think are worth one dollar. The police have been given the strictest instructions to collect all taxes due on dogs, and if they can't collect the taxes, why then they are ordered to collect the dogs. As they city hasn't a home for friendless dogs, there is nothing left then but to shoot them.

FAKED BILL OF LADING.

Is Charge Brought Against George Powell Before Recorder.

At yesterday's session of the Recorder's court, the case of State against George Powell, charged with false pretense, was continued until Monday. It is alleged that the defendant who was committed to the county jail in default of $250 bond, obtained $100 from the cotton exporting firm of the Hilton Compress Company, by presenting a fake bill of lading for a shipment of cotton from Jacksonville, N. C., to the local firm. It is alleged that the money was advanced to him and that he gave his name as George Powell and that he could be located yesterday morning at 10 o'clock at the Wilmington Hotel.

After making an investigation, Mr. Chas. A. Price, the manager of the company, came to the conclusion that the bill of lading was fraudulent and caused Powell to be arrested at the union station yesterday morning as he was about to leave the city.

FLAG DAY CELEBRATION WAS A GREAT SUCCESS

Three Thousand Visited Wrightsville Beach Last Night

Singing of Patriotic Songs by Great Crowd Feature of Evening—Decorations Elaborate—Flag Raising Ceremony.

Not one of the three thousand or more persons who went to Lumina at Wrightsville Beach last night to participate in the celebration of "Flag Day" failed to feel prouder of this great country, for they beheld a wonderful array of the symbols of liberty and freedom and joined enthusiastically in the singing of patriotic songs. Four hundred or more under the leadership of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cantwell participated in the grand march on the ball room floor, forming the letters, "U. S. A.," this being one of the most striking features of the exercises.

Wilmington and Wrightsville Beach presented a truly patriotic appearance yesterday with hundreds and thousands of flags of all sizes flung to the gentle refreshing breezes. Some of the business houses in Wilmington were decorated quite elaborately while nearly all the cottages at the beach were bedecked with flags. Surmounting Lumina pavilion was a mammoth flag while all about were placed hundreds of the Stars and Stripes.

The programme at Lumina last night began with several selections by the Don Richardson orchestra which was followed by the grand march. Under the leadership of the Croom Quintette composed of Messrs. M. Croom, Jesse Croom, James Croom, John Croom, and T. A. Croom, the big audience joined in the singing of the "Star Spangled Banner." Mrs. A. M. Waddell and Mr. Ed Munson had aided very materially in making the singing a success by securing two score or more talented singers to take places in the cast crowd and aid in the singing.

The flag raising ceremony by the members of George Washington and Jeff Davis Councils, of the Junior Order United American Mechanics, in front of Lumina was most impressive. As the flag was flung to the breezes a spot light was played upon it, making a very pretty sight.

Other songs sung at the celebration included "America," "Old North State" and "Dixie." There was dancing between the songs in which many participated. Dainty silk flags were distributed as souvenirs of the occasion.

The big crowd present at the celebration was handled with quickness and dispatch by the Tidewater Power Company and there were no accidents of any kind.

Mayor Thomas H. Wright, Messrs. W. A. French and H. E. Bonitz and the other members of the committee, who arranged the delightful affair, deserve the greatest credit for the very satisfactory manner in which everything was carried out.

CAROLINA BEACH PIER IS PARTIALLY DESTROYED

By a Blaze Which Was Extinguished by "Wilmington's" Crew.

The Carolina Beach pier was partially destroyed by fire about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The steamer Wilmington was coming up from Southport and Capt. J. B. Fox and Mr. John Harper, son of Captain Harper, led a fire-fighting force after the boat had put in to help put it out, and they soon extinguished the blaze.

The steamer's hose was turned on shortly after the Wilmington came up. Not much damage was done, and the fire will not interfere with the operation of the steamer's regular schedule. The pier belongs to the Hanover Transit Company, and the portion burned will be rebuilt at once.

—Former students of the Cape Fear Academy who expect to attend the second annual alumni banquet on June 20th, are requested to register at Mr. Munson's store on Front street.

W. A. Green, colored, mail carrier, landed two big drum Tuesday night at Rich's Inlet. One weighed 35 and the other 27 pounds.

SUMMER MEMBERSHIP RATES

At Y. M. C. A. Offers Attractive Inducements to Young Men to Join for Summer Months.

An opportunity is offered to the young men of Wilmington to become members of the Young Men's Christian Association during the summer months for $3 from now until October 1.

This arrangement gives those taking out the membership the privileges of the Association, especially those of the Physical department and the swimming pool and fine shower baths. Any one of which features would be worth more than the small membership fee charged. The pool with its graduated depths is a fine place to learn to swim if you don't kno whow and an excellent place to swim if you do.

The management of the Association, appreciating the fact that there are many young men in the city who would like to take advantage of the opportunity and take gymnastic exercises during the summer months who cannot attend during the winter, have put on this special summer rate of membership which should appeal to a large number.

The work on the gymnasium floor under the efficient direction of Mr. Seitters will be kept up in classes with short snappy drills and plenty of games so that those who attend will feel well ready for that fine shower bath and a dip in the pool.

This summer term rate is $3 from now until October 1 with no red tape or strings tied to it. A large number of members took advantage of showers and pool last summer and many will no doubt receive the benefits offered again this summer.

SESSION OF INDEPENDENT ORDER OF COLORED PEOPLE

State Organization Holding Annual Convention in Wilmington.

Addresses of welcome on behalf of the city of Wilmington by Mr. Henderson Cole, who represented Mayor P. G. Moore, and by representatives of the different colored organizations featured the session last night of the annual meeting of the Independent order of J. R. Giddings and Jollifre Union, which is being held in Shiloh colored Baptist church. This is the annual State convention of this prominent fraternal organization of colored people.

The exercises were opened with an invocation by Rev. D. B. M. Bodana followed by music by the large choir After remarks by Grand Superintendent Victoria Lofton Mr. Cole extended a welcome to the visitors in behalf of the city which was responded by L. L. P. DeBerry, of Rockingham. Juanita Taylor made the welcoming address for the church which was responded to by Emma Wood. The address of welcome on behalf of the tents was made by C. A. Taylor and this was responded to by M. W. Wood, of New Bern. Other addresses of welcome were by Maggie W. Burnett in behalf of the Royal Degree Council; in behalf of the Juveniles by Rosa Goodman with response by Willie B. Smith, of Smithfield. The closing remarks were made by Julis A. Murray. There was a splendid musical programme rendered.

The annual convention of the Independent Order of J. R. Giddings and Jollifre Union was convened Tuesday morning, in the Shiloh Baptist church with more than 300 delegates in attendance.

Victoria Lofton, grand superintendent, called the grand session to order and presided over the meeting. The other officers present were: Rachel Dudley, grand endowment secretary; Florence Walker, grand endowment recording secretary; Dollie Crowly, grand treasurer, and Maggie W. Todd, grand recording secretary.

The first day's session was devoted to the reception of delegates, the appointment of committees and the conferring of degrees. As delegates continued to arrive on all trains coming to the city, the reading of reports was deferred until all should arrive.

Grand Superintendent Lofton gave her opening address to the delegates; and Maggie Burnett, State grand deputy; and Etta B. Fennell, P. G. deputy, rendered their reports showing that splendid work had been accomplished in building up the order throughout the State. The Grand Superintendent then introduced Sister Rachel Hayes, G. S. M., of Wilmington; who delivered her opening address.

The grand body was very highly entertained by choir at the opening of its session by its rendition of "How Lovely is Zion." Florence Avant delighted the delegates by her singing of a selection of he rown composition entitled, "Oh Love the Sister Tents." The session adjourned at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, but was re-convened at 8 p. m. at Ruth hall, where the delegates and their friends gathered and also the members of Union No. 2 A contest march was held between the two orders, both sides showing considerable skill in marching, but the tents which were led by Rachel Dudley won the prize, a large cake.

The judges of the contest were R. Dein and Rev. J. C. Scarborough. Every one seemed pleased with the decision of the judges, which gave a percentage of 90-95 to the Union and 95-99 to the tents. It is said that it would have been hard for the German soldiers to have beate the Tent members in their marching. An attractive musical programme was carried out which included selections by the band The whole day's session yesterday was devoted to the receiving of reports The number of lodges reported to date, are 40, and the total amount of money paid in aggregates $1,591.64.

FAMILY OF WHALES ATTRACTS CROWD AT CAROLINA BEACH

Which Watches Their Capers Just Outside Breakers With Interest.

Visitors and residents at Carolina Beach were much interested yesterday in the antics of a family of whales, the members of which spouted, dived and cut all sorts of capers in the water just about 200 yards beyond the breakers.

The family which consisted of two big ones, probably the parents, and two small ones were quite plainly visible to the watchers on the shore as they came quite close in. This same family was seen Sunday by automobilists who went to the Beach for their day's outing. While it is not a frequent sight, whales have been seen in these waters before, but rarely have they ventured so close in shore.

The Perfect Corn Flakes

New Post Toasties are not only inexpensive but they bear a new deliciousness, produced by a new process of cookery—the first to produce corn flakes with the self-developed true corn flavor.

So fine is this flavor that New Post Toasties are wondrous good eaten dry. Unlike common corn flakes, they do not require cream and sugar to make them palatable. Try some that way—you'll appreciate the point, though they're even better when served with cream or good milk.

These New Post Toasties don't mush down in cream, and they are not "chaffy" in the package, like common flakes. They're new in form, new in flavor, and new in appearance. Note the tiny bubbles on each flake—an identifying feature.

Put up in wax-sealed packages, New Post Toasties retain their oven-crispness and flavor until served at your table.

Have your grocer deliver a package for tomorrow's breakfast.

BRUNSWICK COUNTY IS SUED BY COAST LINE

Action Believed to be For Recovery of 1914 Taxes.

On Ground That Levy Was Not Properly Made—Big Loads of Menhaden Being Brought in—To Celebrate the Fourth.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Southport, June 14.—Suit has been entered here by the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company against the county of Brunswick. While no complaint has as yet been filed, it is understood that the suit is instituted to recover the tax paid by the railroad company in 1914, upon the ground that the county tax levy was not properly made.

This suit was threatened some time ago, and it has been hoped that it might be averted. It will be a test as to the tax levy of 1914 having been properly made.

After being kept inside for several days by heavy seas outside, the fishing fleet of the Southport Fish Scrap & Oil Company are again able to gather in big loads of menhaden.

Flag day was not observed here to any extent. The postoffice was closed a few hours, between mails, and here and there about town there were flags displayed, notably at Miller's and the Pilots' tower.

This year the Fourth of July is going to receive due celebration in this city There have been Fourths in the past when this holiday was made much of and there is no reason, say a number of young men, why it cannot be again, so they are now going at it for a celebration that will make folks glad they live here, and cause others to come for a day of fun and recreation. There are swimming matches, for boys and girls separately of course; tennis matches a ball game, perhaps a public speech or reading of that too much neglected document the D. of I. of the United States and at night fireworks on the river front of the garrison. And the public is invited to come and enjoy the day.

The old Fort Johnson, commonly called "the garrison," which has received congressional and senatorial endorsement through bills introduced at Washington, for appropriations to put this much neglected property in repair, has received local attention from the electric light and power people, who have installed a splendid string of lights along the entire front edge of the bluff making it brilliant at night, a delightful promenade, but of course too much light for "spooning couples," who have for 100 years had a monopoly of this choice spot.

ducing the President, emphasized the duty of present day Americans to preserve unsullied ideals handed down by the founders of the republic. The President's address in part follows:

The President's Address.

"Mr. Secretary, Ladies and Gentlemen:

"I have not come here this afternoon with the purpose of delivering to you an elaborate address. It seems to me that the day is sufficiently eloquent already with the meaning which it should convey to you. * * *

"I need not remind you how much sentiment has been poured out in honor of the flag of the United States.* * * But this is not merely a day of sentiment. It is a day of purpose.

"It is an eloquent symbol of the unity of our history that upon this monument which commemorates the man who did most to establish the American Union we should have hoisted those stars that have so multiplied since his time. * * *

"But Washington was one of the least sentimental men that America has ever produced. The thing that thrills me about Washington is that he was impatient of any sentiment that was not got definite purpose in it.

The Nation Tested.

"Apparently this nation is again and again, and again, to be tested, and always tested in the same way. The last supreme test that this nation went through was the test of the civil war. You know how deep that cut. You know what exigent issues of life were at issue in that struggle.

"And you know how that ended. While it seemed a time of terror, it has turned out a proof of the validity of our hope. Where are now the divisions of sentiment which cut us asunder at the time of the Civil War? Did we not see the blue and the gray mingled this morning in the procession? Did not you see the sons of a subsequent generation walking together in happy comradeship? Was there any contradiction of feeling or division of sentiment evident there for a moment?

Test Again Applied.

"And yet again the test is applied, my fellow countrymen. A new sort of division of feeling has sprung up amongst us. You know that we are derived in our citizenship from every nation in the world. It is not singular that sentiment should be disturbed by what is going on on the other side of the water, but while sentiment may be disturbed, loyalty ought not to be.

"I want to be scrupulously just, my fellow citizens, in assessing the circumstances of this day, and I am sure that you wish with me to deal out with an even hand the praise and the blame of this day of test. I believe that the vast majority of those men whose lineage is directly derived from the nations now at war are just as loyal to the flag of the United States as any native citizen of this beloved land, but there are some men of that extraction and there are not, and they, not only in past months, but at the present time are doing their best to undermine the influence of the government of the United States in the interest of matters which are foreign to us and which are not derived from the institutions of our own politics.

Disloyalty is Active.

"There is disloyalty active in the United States, and it must be absolutely crushed. It proceeds from a minority, a very small minority, but a very active and subtle minority. It works underground, but it also shows its ugly head where we can see it, and there are those at this moment who are trying to levy a species of political blackmail, saying 'Do what we wish in the interest of foreign sentiment or we will wreak our vengeance at the polls.' That is the sort of thing against which the American nation will turn with a might and triumph of sentiment which will teach these gentlemen once for all that loyalty to this flag is the first test of tolerance in the United States.

"That is the lesson that I have come to remind you of on this day—no mere sentiment. It runs into your daily life and conversation. Are you going, yourselves individually and collectively, to see to it that no man is tolerated who does not do honor to that flag?

A Spiritual Force.

"It is a matter of greater force than that which is physical. It is a matter of spiritual force. It is to be achieved as we think, as we purpose, as we believe, and when the world finally learns that America is indivisible then the world will learn how truly and profoundly great and powerful America is.

"I realize personally, my fellow citizens, the peculiar significance of the flag of the United States at this time, because there was a day not many years ago when, although I thought I knew what that flag stood for, it had not penetrated my whole consciousness as it has now.

"It was a very happy thought that led the committee of gentlemen who had charge of the demonstration of the forenoon to choose the 14th of June for the parade which most of us have witnessed.

The Way of Duty.

"It was an outpouring of people to demonstrate a great national sentiment. * * * I felt caught up and buoyed along by the great stream of human purpose which seemed to flow there in front of me by the stand by the White House, and I shall go away from this meeting as I came away from that parade, with all deepest purposes of my heart renewed; and as I see the winds lovingly unfold the beautiful lines of our great flag, I shall seem to see a hand pointing the way of duty, no matter how hard, no matter how long, which we shall tread while we vindicate the glory and honor of the United States."

SUCCESSOR TO HILLES MAY BE NAMED MONDAY

Manager of the Hughes Campaign May Also be Selected.

Hr. Hughes Has Long Conference With George W. Wickersham—G. H. Putnam, a New York Democrat, Calls on Nominee.

New York, June 14.—Charles D. Hilles' successor as chairman of the Republican National Committee, will be selected, in all likelihood, at a conference here next Monday afternoon between Charles E. Hughes, the presidential nominee; W. Murray Crane, of Massachusetts, chairman of the National sub-committee on organization, and as many of the other seven members of the sub-committee as can be present. Alvah H. Martin, of Virginia, is a member of the sub-committee.

Arrangements for the conference were made late today by Mr. Crane. It also was announced that the manager of the Hughes campaign probably will be selected then and that the personnel of the executive committee will be discussed. The sub-committee is empowered to name the chairman and the executive committee.

No announcement concerning the nominee's choice for national chairman or campaign manager has been made and Mr. Hughes declined tonight to say whether he had made a tentative choice.

Mr. Hughes held a long conference today with George W. Wickersham, former attorney general, who will take an active part in the campaign management. A report that Mr. Wickersham might be chosen campaign manager was denied.

The nominee went to the theatre tonight. It was the first evening since he came here that he had not devoted to work. His present plans provide for his departure from the city over Sunday, his return here Monday to confer with the National sub-committee and his departure Monday night for Providence, R. I., where he will remain probably until Thursday. It is thought probable he will select a summer residence in the mountains in this state, not too remote from New York City.

Among the nominee's callers this afternoon was George Haven Putnam, a New York Democrat, who worked for the nomination of Woodrow Wilson at the Baltimore convention. He came in response to an invitation from Mr. Hughes after having written the nominee a letter telling him that the paramount issue of the campaign was Americanism.

COTTON GROWS SLOWLY

Revie wof the Crop Growing Conditions for the Week.

Washington, June 14.—Reviewing crop growing conditions for the week which ended yesterday, the National Weather and Crop Bulletin today says:

"The weather was less favorable for cotton than prevailed during the first week of June. Rains hindered cultivation in the northern part of the region and there was considerable complaint of slow growth, due especially to cool nights, in nearly all sections. Blooms are noted southern Alabama and Georgia, and blooms and bolls are reported in western Florida where some plants are 18 inches in height. While cotton is late in most of Texas, due to earlier unfavorable weather conditions, the plants have developed so rapidly in extreme southern Texas, that one bale was marketed from Cameron county on the 10th. The weevil are numerous in southern Alabama, and are found in Florida as far east as Madison county some damage is reported."

ROOSEVELT UNDERGOES AN X-RAY EXAMINATION

Fears That He Had Suffered a Heart Attack Are Allayed.

Characterizes Trouble as "Possibly a Slight Breaking of the Muscles" Around Rib Which Was Broken a Year Ago.

New York, June 15.—Theodore Roosevelt underwent an X-ray examination here today for what he characterized as "possibly a slight breaking of the muscles" around the rib which was broken when he was thrown from a horse May 24, 1915. Fears that the former President had suffered a heart attack were allayed tonight when he received several newspaper correspondents.

Colonel Roosevelt explained that he contracted a severe cold while returning several months ago from a trip to the West Indies and that at intervals since then he had been subjected to coughing spells. One of these occurred this morning when he and Mrs. Roosevelt motored to a steamship pier to meet Kermit Roosevelt and the latter's wife who returned from South America on the United States transport Kilpatrick.

A throat specialist who later made an X-ray examination said tonight: "There doesn't appear to be any possible chance of serious discomfort to the patient."

Colonel Roosevelt was in excellent humor tonight but his face appeared worn and haggard.

Earlier in the day he gave out a statement in which he characterized his indisposition as "ridiculous, but painful," adding, "so, like King Agag, I arch my neck and walk lightly."

Several of the newspaper correspondents later informed the Colonel that they had experienced some difficulty in finding the quotation.

"Well," he replied, smiling, "it is in the First Book of Samuel, which reminds me that Samuel was a very good war correspondent."

The former President chuckled and said he believed he had prompted Biblical reading to a greater extent than any other man of the country.

MAYOR KILLS HIMSELF

H. B. Hundley, of Martinsville, Va., Found Shot Through Head.

Martinsville, Va., June 14.—Mayor H. B. Hundley, 59 years old, committed suicid ehere this morning by shooting himself through the head with a revolver. No reason for the act is assigned. The body was discovered late this afternoon in a room over the mayor's office by John H. Dyer, his brother-in-law. Mr. Dyer said he recalled hearing a shot about 11:30 o'clock but paid no particular attention to it.

Mayor Hundley was re-elected mayor of Martinsville at a cit yelection yesterday. He is survived by a widow and two daughters. He was past master of the local Masonic Lodge.

Baldwin, of Roanoke, Va., commander-in-chief of the Sons of Confederate Veterans.

An arrangements committee will be organized soon, it was decided, to prepare for the celebration.

MULE DESERVES DECORATION

Testimony of Man Who is With British Force in Arabia.

(New York Evening Post).

"If beasts were decorated, the mule would be covered with ribbons. He also knows not defeat. His hardiness is proverbial; none of the plagues of Mesopotamia have affected his sang froid. The pack mule as a rule serves the first line; in the second line of the brunt of the work has fallen on the ponies and mules of the Jaipur and Bharatpur imperial service transport corps. The ponies are country bred, ungelded, and stand about 13.2. One seldom sees a stranded Indian army transport cart among the wreckage of a battle. The A. T. cars were at Shaiba in Januafy last, plying daily between the camp and Gasra through five miles of flood, in two or three feet of water with frequent bog holes, in which the animals and carts were submerged. The ponies had to be unhooked, the carts unloaded, man-handled with draw ropes and loaded again. From Shaiba they went to Ahwaz and thence on that historic desert march in June through sand and swamp by Illah and Bisaitin, to Amara. Thence to Ali Gherbia, Kut-el-Amara, and Ctesiphon back to Ali Gherbi, and on again in the new advance. Thirteen months, with little halt in their daily convoy work, with constant covering of their tracks. The same carts, same animals, same men. And they look as if they could do it again."

TO CARRY MONEY SAFELY

Good Idea Not to Put it All in One Pocket.

(Woman's Home Companion.)

You may have given only a passing thought of where and how to carry money when you go traveling. To be safe, do not carry tickets, money and all valuables in one pocket.

Buy a bill folder of sufficient size to take care of the railroad and steamer tickets, baggage checks and so on. Probably the safest place to carry this wallet will be in the inside pocket of your coat. Your money will be safest and in the most convenient place for you if carried in a small leather folder in a side pocket of your trousers.

How are your biscuits baking?

If your biscuits are not baking as light and fine as they used to it's due to rain-damaged wheat. This season's crop was the worst in 50 years. Flour from such wheat lacks strength; doesn't rise properly because it's fermented by too much moisture.

But you can get flour made from highest grade wheat. By sending our own men to far off sections and paying premium prices, we got enough of the best wheat to keep Valier's Dainty Flour up to the highest quality. Now, especially, you ought to get this superfine flour. It may cost a trifle more, but it is guaranteed to make better biscuits, cake, pastry etc.

THEATRICAL

House Peters, recognized as America's foremost portrayer of intense dramatic roles, a prime motion picture favorite everywhere, takes the lead in today's great six-reel William A. Brady feature at the Grand Theatre, "The Closed Road," co-starring with the exquisite and beautiful screen artiste, Barbara Tennant, one of the most beautiful and accomplished emotional actresses on the screen.

From an artistic standpoint "The Closed Road" is a picture that will compell admiration from every quarter. Action, atmosphere, drama, scenes, everything which goes into the making of a perfect production handled so originally different that its superiority over any other feature is noticed the first few scenes. Maurice Tournier, dean of European picture directors, as director tells all that is necessary, with the stars named above.

"The Closed Road" is a startlingly original drama of life, love and lust startling with its suspense and intenseness, uncommon to stage or screen production with a cast of stars whose magnitude rises far above the usual standard of photoplay features. No tenser nor startling play has ever been screened and vizualized, and it should be greeted by packed houses all day as it is presented with the absolute guarantee of the management.

Triangle Bill at Royal.

Another great seven reel Triangle Bill today at the Royal. The bill is headed by a great Thomas H. Ince Triangle dramatic production in five acts, "The Coward," starring Frank Keenan, Charles Ray, Gertrude Claire Ray gives a performance that is truly a revelation. His expressions, made so significant by close-ups, reveal with powerful sincerity his innermost feelings.

And the great Triangle-Keystone Comedy! None other than Eddie Foy, with the ever present "seven little Foys" present "A Favorite Fool," a joyous knockabout number with Eddie Foy continually the center of attraction. Pretty Polly Moran, Mae Busch and Charles Arling furnish support. Miss Busch and Miss Moran adding a delightful touch of feminine beauty to the picture. The clever sub-titles are an added attraction to this superb comedy production and a few startling scenes show a remarkable rain and windstorm. It is entirely free from anything vulgar, as are all Triangle-Keystones.

Great Layout at Bijou.

It's a great layout at the Bijou today. Something new and starling every day in the week, here!

Harry D. Carey, one of the strongest dramatic stars who ever appeared in a Universal film, heads the list co-starring with Olive Fuller Golden and Peggy Courdry in a great two-reel dramatic thunderbolt, "The Wedding Guest" scenariorized by Bess Meredyth from the magazine story of the same name by Lucia Chamberlain, which many Wilmingtonians have no doubt read.

Harry was sure some sheriff, and as brave and bold as a real Western sheriff should be. There is only one person he's afraid of and that's old Colonel Dan Cupid. What he does makes Harry throw away his star in disgust. A particularly fine Western, with

CHARLES RAY AND GERTRUDE CLAIRE IN "THE COWARD," NEW INCE-KAY BEE PRODUCTION IN THE TRIANGLE PROGRAM.
TODAY'S TRIANGLE DRAMA AT THE ROYAL.

Margaret Gibson, Nick Cogley and Charles French—some cast this, for a single production, and every one of them are Triangle headliner stars. "The Coward" is a strong virile picture, full of suspense and thrills, each scene keyed so as to result in the highest dramatic efficiency. Frank Keenan in a powerful dramatic role, is a powerful figure in this photoplay. Charles enough heart-interest to make a five-reeler.

Two of the biggest comedies of the week are on today's bill. "A Stage Villain" is a great Joker scream with William Franey and Gail Henry doing the leads, and "All Over the Biscuits" is a screamingly funny and ludicrous Nestor with Eddie Lyons, Lee Moran and Betty Compson. Some bill!

WHEN WASHINGTON, N. C., WAS AN IMPORTANT SHIPPING PORT

Captain Parvin Tells of Days When Many Vessels Served the Port.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Washington, N. C., June 14.—Captain W. A. Parvin, 76, in a newspaper interview, recalls the days when this port was one of the leading shipping points of the South Atlantic states. He can remember the names of 25 or 30 sail ships which sailed out from Washington between 1858 and 1861; he can name most of their masters, also. Not many people in the section know that the town ever had such prominence in the maritime world. Commerce was carried on with the northern United States ports, the West Indies, Central and South America, and with other continents. Hundreds of skippers and seamen had their homes here. Not a dozen of them survive. The last of the vessels in the foreign trade—the Cora, a schooner—made her final voyage within the past fifteen years.

Captain Parvin remembers that one cargo carried out of this harbor in the late '50s by the sailor Allen Grist comprised great quantities of shelled corn, black-eyed peas and other field produce, and twenty tons of North Carolina hams and shoulders.

The War Between the States did for the larger part of Washington's blue water commerce; the railroads and river steamboats accounted for the remainder between the '70s and the early part of this century. Nearly every ship that he recollects was owned by local capital. Lumber was handled extensively. Thousands of tons of tropical fruits was brought here every year from the British, Dutch and Spanish West Indies.

Captain Parvin has had a long career on the water. He made his first trip from Philadelphia in 1850. During the war he was master of a Confederate States ship, and steamers plying between Wilmington and other ports.

Burgaw, N. C., June 14.—The friends here of E. T. Burton, Esq., were delighted to see that he had won out in the second primary in New Hanover by such a handsome vote, and feel that he will justify the confidence reposed in him by making an efficient officer.

COMING TO ROADS MEETING.

Strawberry Acreage in Columbus to be Increased—Whiteville News.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Whiteville, N. C., June 14.—There will be a large delegation from Columbus to the Good Roads convention at Wrightsville next week. There is a great deal of interest being shown in road building by the people of the county.

The acreage in strawberries will be greatly increased this year in many sections. The farmers are going back to truck crops on a small scale, and not stick entirely to cotton as a money crop. The berry growers made money the past season, but it was all because of the great shortage in the yield throughout the berry growing states.

The oat crop has been very good this year and many farmers made fairly good crops of wheat. Cucumbers are going forward from the Broadway community.

Much interest is being manifested in the race of Godwin and Brown for Congress at their second primary. Both are in the field this week. The candidate from Columbus has thrown himself into the fight to win and says that he is receiving most encouraging news from all parts of the noble Sixth.

Crops are growing fast in this county. Tobacco has improved very fast of late. Whiteville will have a live market this year. Buyers from all the large markets will be on hand at the opening of the season.

NEW RAILROAD LINE FROM SNOW HILL TALKED AGAIN

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Wilson, N. C., June 14.—With the announcement that the Norfolk Southern Railway has purchased the road to Pink Hill comes a story from a Greene county man who says that he has inside information to the effect that negotiations are under way for the sale to the Norfolk Southern of the road from Snow Hill to Kinston and the construction of the line from Snow Hill to a point on the Norfolk Southern east of Wilson.

This possible railway construction has been talked before and engineers have gone over the line. Several years ago—just prior to the beginning of the war—it was generally understood here that the line would be built and the Norfolk Southern be given a short line from Raleigh to New Bern and Beaufort. Last Year when the Neverson quarrys were opened and the contract given the railway company to furnish the rock for the breakwater, the short line talk was heard again.

This Greene county man says that he knows it is to be done now—he is so sure of it that he has already planned a town site between Snow Hill and Stantonsburg. Anyway—whether he is right or wrong—the talk is being heard.

LINEMEN TO CLIMB POLES

Kinston Ordinance Prohibits Them Climbing Street Trees With Spikes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Kinston, N. C., June 14.—Kinston's trees are a municipal asset and as such shall be protected to the limit, decided the city council last night in agreeing to pass an ordinance aimed at the genus lineman—telephone, telegraph and electric light. Complaint was made to council that the linemen used spikes in climbing trees to work upon adjacent poles. "They'll shin up the poles, and not the trees," council decided. Hereafter it will cost a trouble-shooter $5 every time he climbs with spikes up a city-owned tree and gets caught at it.

Answer to Special From Fairmont That Appeared in The Star, June 2nd, Page 4, Column 4.

New Berlin, N. C.,
June 10th, 1916.

Mr. J. R. Williamson,
Cerro Gordo, N. C.

Dear Sir:—

Hearing that the report of a certain telegram having been sent to Ransom township, signed by Mr. J. A. Brown, of Chadbourn, N. C., addressed to Mr. G. Herbert Smith, has been denied, I write to you to say that such a telegram was received and read aloud by Mr. Smith, the then township chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee. I was present at the time on the day of the general election, 1914, and heard the telegram read, and the effect of the same, no doubt, to my mind, caused people then and afterwards assembled, to VOTE for an independent against Mr. Williamson, the regular Nominee for the Legislature. I am a farmer, am 47 years old, and I have lived in this County all my life. I regret that such a telegram was sent, that, to my mind, influenced some of the voters to vote differently than they would otherwise done.

Yours very truly,
DAVID W. WELLS.

Witness:
T. W. Pridgen.

To the Voters of the Sixth District:

I have other letters and evidence of admissions as to the telegram being sent to Ransom Township on day of last general election, by one J. A. Brown, Chairman of Democratic Exective Committee, of Columbus County, which proved to be in the interest of an independent candidate for the Legislature. Mr. Smith, the recipient of the said telegram, greeted the independent first time after election in the Court House at Whiteville, by saying to the independent: "The telegram fixed him." I have evidence that Mr. Smith admitted he and Mr. J. A. Brown had a conversation relative to sending the wire prior to the date of election. Mr. Mack Potter and others at Acme, N. C., in Ransom Township, state in letter they were influenced to vote against me by reason of the said wire. The truth will not be crushed.

Respectfully,
J. R. WILLIAMSON,
Member 1913 Legislature. Renominated, 1914.

P. S.—Have been out of State part of time since June 2d; hence delay in answering.

COTTON RISES SLIGHTLY

Rallies Follow Decline Caused by Less Favorable Crop Reports—Net Advance 2 to 4 Points.

New York, June 14.—Less favorable crop accounts checked selling in the cotton market today and early declines were followed by rallies with December selling up from 12.95 to 13.03 and closing at that level. The general list closed steady at a net advance of 2 to 4 points.

The market opened steady at a decline of 4 to 5 points, which was only a partial response to a very sharp break in Liverpool. Houses with Liverpool connections sold some October, December and January, and there was also some scattered selling from the South, but general offerings were light, and were pretty well taken around the initial figures. After the publication of the weekly weather report at midday, which did not read as favorably as expected, the market turned steadier on a flurry of local covering. The buying was also promoted by a report from a local bureau placing the condition of the crop as of June 8 at 78.5 per cent, compared with 77.4 as of May 22nd.

Last prices were within a point or two of the best. It was reported that some ocean freight room had been booked from New York for Liverpool at $1.50 per hundred, with additional room offered at the same price compared with the rate of $1.75 last paid and with the rate of about $3 per hundred, which was quoted some weeks ago.

Cotton closed steady.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON.

Early Decline is Overcome and Market Closed at a Small Gain.

New Orleans, June 14.—After a net decline of 5 to 8 points in the morning session today the cotton market acquired a strong tone and late in the day stood 2 to 4 points over yesterday's last quotation. The close was at a net rise of 1 to 3 points.

Liverpool was not up to expectations and private cables were pessimistic over the spot inquiry as the result of mill holidays. This had some influence in the early trading but later wa soffset by reports of a better spot demand locally. Several buyers from interior points were reported operating in this market which was taken to mean that either offerings were becoming exhausted at interior points or that holders were too firm in their views.

The weather map and crop accounts generally were called favorable, as were the weekly reports by states from the weather bureau. The summary, however, for the week was considered unfavorable and led to buying around the middle of the day.

The market closed very steady. Closing bid: July 12.57; October 12.68; December 12.82; January 12.93; March 13.08.

Spot firm and unchanged; middling 12.69, spot sales 1,390 bales; to arrive 460 bales.

LARGE GAINS IN STOCKS

Trading is of Highly Speculative Character—Copper and Sugar the Leading Features.

New York, June 14.—The highly speculative character of today's trading may be judged from the fact that two such widely divergent issues as Inspiration Copper and American Beet Sugar constituted the chief features, both at new records. Inspiration, on the enormous turn-over of 113,000 shares, made an extreme gain of 2 7-8 to 50 7-8, and Beet Sugar in which dealings amounted to 42,000 shares, rose 4 3-4 to 94 1-2. Other coppers followed in the wake of Inspiration, some making equally large gains.

In other divisions of the list the movement was frequently irregular, although rails made up for their early sluggishness in the final hour when Norfolk & Western advanced 3 1-4 with marked strength in Canadian Pacific and its subsidiary, "Soo". Junior Vanderbilts also improved upon recent gains and New Haven was bid up against a stubborn short interest. Some unsettlement was manifested at the outset when Willys Overland registered an abrupt decline of 28 points to 277 as a result of the over-night announcement of the abandonment of the merger in which it was to figure conspicuously. Other motors fell in sympathy, but recovered very generally while Willys Overland rallied about 11 from its minimum. Munitions were temporarily affected by the setback in motors, but these also closed with a firm tone.

Shipping stocks were again extremely variable, Mercantile Marine, preferred, denoting further liquidation while United Fruit held a fair gain. Fertilizer issues responded to favorable trade reports and scattering gains and losses were recorded by miscellaneous shares.

Mexicans were once more under pressure in consequence of the disturbing conditions in that country, although American Smelting and Greene Cananea finally shook off that handicap. United States Steel moved within narrow limits, easing off at the close.

Foreign exchange rates were steady in the main with another import of gold from Canada, bringing the total movement from that source well above the $50,000,000. Bonds were steady on restricted operations. Total sales, par value, aggregated $3,725,000. United States 4s declined 1-4 per cent on call.

DEPARTURE OF TRA

Europe's conflagration have blazed in our own skies, echoes of her strife have sounded at our very doors. That fire still burns, that struggle still continues, but thus far the United States has held the flame at bay; thus far it has saved its people from participation in the conflict.

"What the people of the United States must determine through their suffrage, is whether the course the country has pursued through this crucial period is to be continued: whether the principles that have been asserted as our national policy shall be endorsed or withdrawn.

"This is the paramount issue. No lesser issue must cloud it, no unrelated problems must confuse it."

In declaring that the policy of neutrality is as American as the American flag, Mr. Glynn asserted that:

"The first President of the United States was the first man to pronounce neutrality a rule of international conduct.

"In April, 1793, Washington declared the doctrine; and within a month John Jay, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, in an epoch-making decision from the bench whose realization would ensure universal and perpetual peace, wrote the principle into the law of this land. The Declaration of Independence had foretold it by declaring 'the rest of mankind enemies in war, in peace friends; the Constitution recognized it; but the first President of the United States by proclamation, the first Chief Justice by interpretation gave it vitality and power.

"The President of the United States stands today where stood the men who made America and who saved America. He stands where John Adams stood, when he told King George that America was the land he loved and that peace was her grandeur and her welfare. He stands where General Grant stood when he said there never was a war that could not have been settled better some other way, and he has shown by willingness to try the ways of peace before he seeks the paths of war. He stands where George Washington stood when he prayed that this country would never unsheath the sword except in self-defense so long as justice and our essential rights could be preserved without it.

"For vain glory or for selfish purpose others may cry up a policy o blood and iron, but the President of the United States has acted on the belief that the leader of a nation who plunges his people into an unnecessary war, like Pontius Pilate vainly washes his hands of innocent blood while the earth quakes and the heavens are darkened and thousands give up the ghost."

Speaking of the opposition to the President's peace policy, the speaker continued:

"By opposing what we stand for today, the Republican party opposes what Hamilton stood for a century ago. The founder of the Republican party and the founder of the Democratic party, placing their country's happiness above every other consideration, forgot partisanship and made American neutrality a nation creed. We who follow Jefferson stand where Jefferson stood, but we look in vain for a sign from the present leaders of the Republican party to show that they follow where Hamilton led. Where Hamilton counseled moderation they denounce it. Where Hamilton thought only of country they think only of self. Where Hamilton placed patriotism above partisanship they place patrisanship above patriotism. How then do they dare to speak for the great body of American citizens who form the rank and file of the Republican party? Do these leaders believe that their Republicanism is a better Republicanism than Hamilton's, their Americanism a purer Americanism than that of Washington?

"If Washington was right, if Jefferson was right, if Hamilton was right, if Lincoln was right, then the President of the United States is right today; if the Republican leaders are right then Lincoln was wrong and Jefferson was wrong and Hamilton was wrong and Washington was wrong."

The justification of our policy of neutrality is expressed by Mr. Glynn in these words:

"Before this declaration every war was a world-war; since this declaration nearly every war has been a local war. Before this declaration war was a whirlpool, ever-increasing in area and in its whirl dragging down the nations of the earth; since this declaration war has become a sea of trouble upon which nations embark only from self-will, from self-interest or the necessity of geographical position, of financial obligation or political alliance.

"Neutraity is the policy which has kept us at peace while Europe has been driving the nails of war through the hands and feet of a crucified humanity.

"The praises of this policy are not written in the ruins of American homes, not in the wreck of American industries, not in the mourning of American families; they are found in the myriad evidences of prosperity and plenty that make this a contented land. From every whirling spindle in America, from every factory wheel that turns, from every growing thing that breathes its prayer of plenty to the skies, from every quiet school, from every crowded mart, from every peaceable home goes up a song of praise, a paean of thanksgiving to hymn a nations' tribute to the statesmanship that has brought these things to pass."

The issue raised by Democracy's opponents of the vigor with which our neutrality has been enforced is dealt with by the records of history:

"When Grant was President, during the war between Spain and the Spanish West Indies, a Spanish gunboat seized the vessel 'Virginus' flying the American flag and a Spanish commandant in cold blood shot the captain of the 'Virginus,' thirty-six of the crew and sixteen of the passengers.

"But we didn't go to war, Grant settled our troubles by negotiation just as the President of the United States is trying to do today.

"When Harrison was President the people of Chili conceived a violent dislike to the United States for our insistence upon neutrality during the Chilean revolution. When this feeling was at its height one junior officer from the United States warship Baltimore was killed outright in the streets of Valparaiso and sixteen of our sailors wounded, of whom one afterwards died.

"But we didn't go to war. Harrison settled our troubles by negotiation just as the President of the United States is trying to do today.

"When Lincoln was President this country's rights were violated on every side. England, Russia, France and Spain were guilty of such flagrant violations that Secretary of State Seward advanced a plan to go to war with all of them at one and the same time.

"But we didn't go to war. Lincoln settled our troubles by negotiation just as the President is trying to do today.

"When Pierce was President the British minister in this country and three of his counsel violated our neutrality during the Crimean war. We gave these representatives of Great Britain their passports and sent them home.

"But we didn't go to war. Pierce settled our troubles by negotiation just as the President of the United States is trying to do today.

"When Van Buren was President a detachment of Canadian militia, during the internal troubles in Canada, boarded the U. S. ship Carolina in the American waters of Niagara river, killed an American member of the crew, fired the ship and sent her adrift over Niagara Falls.

"But we didn't go to war. Van Buren settled our troubles by negotiation just as the President of the United States is trying to do today.

"When Jefferson was President England seized hundreds of our ships and Napoleon hundreds more.

"When Adams was President France preyed upon our commerce. She extended her seizure, searches and confiscations to the very waters of the United States themselves until she had piled up in our State Department charges of over 2,300 violations of neutrality's law.

"But we didn't go to war. Adams settled our troubles by negotiation just as the President of the United States is trying to do today.

"When Washington was president and, 'neutrality' first declared, war convulsed Europe, our ships dared not to put out to sea, commerce was paralyzed and business depressed. American passengers and American crews were thrown into prison and deprived of legal rights.

"But we didn't go to war. Washington settled our troubles by negotiation just as the President of the United States is trying to do today."

In concluding this issue, Mr. Glynn asks:

"Do the critics of the present administration believe that Lincoln should have risked national disaster by using the sword rather than the pen in pressing the Alabama claims? Are they willing to grand Grant as a coward because he kept us at peace with Spain?"

In answer to those who say that President Wilson's policy does not satisfy anyone Mr. Glynn replies: "He means that it does not satisfy those who would map out a new and untried course for this nation to pursue, but they forget it does satisfy those who believe the United States should live up to the principles it has professed for a century and more."

"Chief Justice White of the United States Supreme Court says this policy has given America the greatest diplomatic victory of the past generation. Maximilian Harden, Germany's noted editor, says 'that never once has this republic violated its neutrality,' and Gilbert K. Chesterton, the famous English journalist, says, 'it is the duty of the President of the United States to protect the interests of the people of the United States,' that 'he can't dip his country into hell just to show the world he has a keen sense of being an individual saviour.'"

"This policy," Mr. Glynn continued "may not satisfy those who revel in destruction and find pleasure in despair. It may not satisfy the fire-eater or the swashbuckler. But it does satisfy those who worship at the altar of the God of Peace. It does satisfy the mothers of the land at whose hearth and fireside no jingoistic war has placed an empty chair. It does satisfy the daughters of this land from whom bluster and brag has sent no loving brother to the dissolution of the grave. It does satisfy the fathers of this land and the sons of this land who will fight for our flag, and die for our flag when Reason primes the rifle, when Honor draws the sword, when Justice breathes a blessing on the standards they uphold."

"Fighting for every degree of injury," he maintained "would mean perpetual war and this is the policy of our opponents, deny it how they will. It would make America the cockpit of time the fighting cock of the European weather vane shifted with the breeze. It would make American the cockpit of the world. We would be so busy settling other people's quarrels that we would have no time to attend to our own business."

In his treatment of the issue of Preparedness Mr. Glynn asserts that the genius of this country is for peace.

"We have built our greatness on the resources of nature and the peaceful toil of our people. The ring of the anvil not the rattle of the saber, the song of the reaper, not the shrieff of the soldier, the clatter of the shuttle not the crack of the rifle have won us the place we occupy in the councils of the world.

"Like the old Mohawk chief who loved peace, we would like to throw the tomahawk of war so high in the sky that no man's hand could ever pull it down. But when some other tribe among the races of men sends us a bundle of arrows wrapped in the skin of a rattlesnake, we want, like old Governor Bradford, of Massachusetts, to be in a position to send that rattlesnake's skin back stuffed with powder and with ball.

"We have been carried too close to the rocks of war during the past two years to believe that those rocks do not exist. And looking into the future we can perceive that if our sovereignity is not challenged, if our peace is not assailed it will only be because the world knows that we are strong enough to defend ourselves from every foe.

"For these reasons this administration has done more for our army and our navy than any administration in our history.

"More than this, it has mobilized the resources of the nation to meet the needs of war. It has placed the wealth of the country back of the strength of the country, the toiler back of the soldier and the sailor.

"And to our opponents we say you can't create an army, can't create a navy in the course of a day; to them we say if our navy is not strong enough, our army not big enough the Republican party is eighty per cent. to blame for the Republican party has been in control of this nation 80 per cent. of the time during the past 50 years.

"The Democratic party advocates and seeks preparedness, but it is preparedness for defense, not preparedness for aggression.

"It is the preparedness which builds the nation's house upon a rock, so it will not fall when the rains descend and the floods come and winds blow.

"A regard for national surety as well as a pride of personal honor will therefore bring the American people to the support of their President. Whether their blood is drawn from the banks of the Rhine; or where the River Shannon flows, whether they hail from Alpine valleys or the meadows of the Prynees, whether their descent be German or French, Irish or English, Austrian or Italian, Russian or Greek, the men who have sworn an oath of fealty to the ideals of America will be true."

"They may love the lands of their fathers much, but they love the land of their children more. They may cherish the memory of the sod from whence they sprung, but they stand ready to die for the soil that they have hallowed with their homes."

In his review of our domestic policy the temporary chairman pointed ou that the promise made by Democracy four years ago had been faithfully kept

"Today the prosperity which the nation enjoys bears witness that Democracy has kept the faith. Today the gates of opportunity are open; the hosts of special privilege stand disarmed. Today the forces of government are encouraging, not blocking the full expression of the nation's progress. Today the business man, the artisan and farmer find themselves free to enjoy the fruits of their labors unhampered by the sinister power of special privilege or the selfish oppression of 'invisible government.'

Of the Federal Reserve act Mr. Glynn had this to say:

"In the panic of 1907, under the old system, New York could not lend a country bank $50,000 with which to meet factory payrolls; in 1015 under the new system, inaugurated by this Democratic administration, New York loaned Europe five hundred millions even though the financial centers of the world were disrupted by the world war, and there were still left in New York the largest bank deposits in its history.

"If this Democratic administration had performed no other public service than the enactment of the Federal Reserve act, it would deserve the unstinted approval of a grateful nation. Thanks to Democracy and to Democracy's great leader, the business man who is struggling to establish himself may now work out his destiny without living in terror of panies and hard times. The toiler in the factory may ply his tasks in security, knowing that his employer's business is safe from assault. The farmer who must borrow to move his crops may do so without spending his days in anxiety, his nights in nightmares of foreclosure and disaster."

"The Underwood tariff," declared the speaker, "enacted by this administration has banished greed from the gates of our ports and written justice into our tariff schedules.

"Of all the tariffs we ever enacted this is the fairest and the best.

"Until the foreign war reduced importations no new tariff was ever more satisfactory. The highest protective tariff ever written would probably have given us no more revenue during this European war and a higher tariff on raw materials would have hampered our manufactures; a higher tariff on the necessities of life would have placed a woeful burden on the poor man in the conditions which the war abroad has brought about.

"By the Underwood law this administration has taken the tariff out of politics; by the new tariff commission it proposes to take politics out of the tariff."

In the discussion of prosperity Mr. Glynn made particular reference to our industrial condition.

"Today Prosperity shines from blazing furnaces and glowing forges. It echoes from busy docks and from thronged emporiums of trade. Its message of plenty fills the land with the chant of the spindle and the loom, lifting the mortgage from the poor man's home and promising his children a future that seemed impossible before.

"During the past four years this country has experienced a steady and continuous improvement in business Wealth has increased 21 per cent., the value of manufactured products 39 per cent., capital 43 per cent., wages 54 per cent., and exports 77 per cent. The flood-tide of our prosperity has risen to such an unprecedented height that the only limit to trade is our ability to make and transport the commodities demanded at home and abroad. Our fields and our factories cry aloud for men and unemployment has ceased to be a problem. Wages have advanced, building operations have resumed, real estate has recovered its worth.

"There is not an idle car on our railroads or an idle ship at our docks. For the first time in history America's greatest port has become the world's greatest port.

"The purchasing power of our people is greater than that of any other people on the globe. Never was there as much money in our vaults as today The aggregate resources of our national banks are three thousand millions more than the aggregate resources of the Bank of England, the Bank of France, the Bank of Russia the Reichbank of Germany, the Bank of the Netherlands, the Swiss National bank and the Bank of Japan. We have four hundred and one millions of money more than we had a year and a half ago and our gold supply exceeds by many hundreds of millions the gold supply of any other nation on earth.

"This avalanche of money poured into our pockets by the rest of the world as a tribute to our national resources and our fidelity to peaceful industry is not the measure of our prosperity. It is only the symbol. Compared with our trade at home this foreign trade is a mere pittance. Our domestic commerce today is larger than the foreign commerce of all the nations of the world combined.

Against this actual condition our opponents raise an argument of "ifs." With greater truth we can also enter the realm of conjecture and declare that if another candidate had been elected four years ago, the United States would be at war today. A ton of 'ifs' do not weight as much as a single fact. Our opponents forget that 'if' the flight of the seagulls off the coast of the West Indies had not directed his course, Columbus would not have discovered America when he did But the seagulls were there—'ifs' can not banish them—and Columbus found our land."

Chairman Glynn concluded with praise for President Wilson, who, he said, has measured up to the traditions of a great office.

"He has been wise with a wisdom that is steeped in the traditions of his country, with a wisdom that has been disciplined by training and broadened by instruction.

"He has been firm with the firmness that proceeds from deep conviction, with the firmness that is grounded in a duty well defined.

"He has been patient with the patience which believes and trusts that truth crushed to earth will rise again, with the patience that can endure and wait, watch and pray, for the certain vindication of justice, humanity and right.

"He has been patriotic with a patriotism that has never wavered, a patriotism that is as pure and strong as the faith that moved the fathers when they made our country free.

"And when the history of these days comes to be written, and the children of tomorrow read their nation's story, when time shall have dispelled all misconception, and the years shall have rendered their impartial verdict, one name will shine in golden splendor upon the page that is blackened with the tale of Europe's war, one name will represent the triumph of American principles over the hosts of darkness and of death.

"That name will be the name of the great president who has made Democracy proud that he is a Democrat, and made Americans proud that he is an American.

"It will be the name of the statesman who has kept his country true to its faith in a time that tried men's souls; the name of the student and the scholar who has championed the cause of American freedom wherever he found it oppressed, the name of the patriot who has implanted his country's flag on the highest peak to which humanity has yet aspired; the name that carried the torch of progress to victory once and will carry it to victory again, the name of Woodrow Wilson, president and president to be."

Here's A 'Tip' On Rheumatism Follow It

AN ACCURATE DESCRIPTION

When your arm or your leg feels "all knotted" with rheumatism, when you feel as though your muscles were "tied up with a rope," you are really describing your pains accurately. Rheumatism is a condition of the body when acids and other deposits of impurities are actually "tieing up" the strands of muscles in your body, or strangling the nerves and thus producing the awful shooting pains of sciatica, lumbago, etc. Medical authorities agree that these acid deposits are carried and deposited by the blood in the various parts of the body. It stands to reason, therefore, that local applications such as rubbing with so-called remedies can't do any permanent good. At best they can relieve the pain a little and only for a little while. The only way to effect a real cure is to attack the real cause—the blood. It is cleansed from the troublesome deposits by S. S. S., the reliable blood purifier that is now easing the pains and healing the ills of the third generation. S. S. S. "goes after" the impurities in the blood as relentlessly, as eagerly and as thoroughly as a ferret goes after rats; pursuing the poison into every vein and artery, into every nook and corner of the body, and chasing the troublesome substances out of the system. The blood thus cleansed, carries off the acid and other injurious deposits and "filters" them out of the body through the kidneys. S. S. S. is not a drug. It is a purely vegetable blood purifier. You can get S. S. S. at every drug store. But if in addition you should like to have the advice of the doctors in charge of our laboratory, do not hesitate to write us. You will receive free, conscientious and confidential advice. This is in line with our policy to make every effort to insure the best results from S. S. S. to every sufferer. Get a bottle at your druggist's today. If you wish special advice, write to Medical Department, Room 45, Swift Specific Company, Atlanta, Georgia.
